May Meeting

As interim moderator of Breadalbane, Rev. L. E. Blaikie announced that Mr. Karl English of Acadia University would commence work as student missionary there for the summer on May 29.

Reporting on camps, Rev. E. H. Bean announced the dates for the summer at Camp Keir as follows: Young People's, July 5-14; Girls, July 19-28; and Boys, August 2-11.

Rev. L. E. Blaikie announced that early in July the Brookfield congregation would celebrate the 60th anniversary of its founding by re-opening of newly decorated church and the holding of a week's preaching mission and he invited the Presbytery to hold its next meeting there on July 5. This invitation was accepted by the Court.

Rev. Donald Nicholson had the Presbytery certify Mr. Randolph Nicholson as a student in preparation for the study of theology. Mr. Nicholson is from Hartsville congregation, is serving under the Board of Missions this summer and plans to enter Acadia University in the fall.

Rev. Donald Campbell announced that plans for the erection of the Gordon Memorial would be carried out upon receipt of a supplementary grant from the Board of Administration.

The Court learned with regret of the passing of two senior elders, Mr. Henry Yeo of Lot 14 congregation, and Mr. Donald MacKinnon of Zion Church, Charlottetown, and the sympathy of the Presbytery was expressed to the Sessions and congregations concerned.

As Rev. E. S. Hales leaves the Presbytery soon he relinquished the moderator's chair and the Rev. M. C. Curris was elected to the office as his successor. Tribute was paid to Mr. Hales' in the Presbytery during the four and one half years and thanked the members for kindnesses and co-operation him. The next meeting of Presbytery is appointed to be in the church at Brookfield July 5, at 2 p.m. AST.
