THE DOYLE'S DEAD.—The Boston papers received by last night's mail announce the death of William and John Doyle, of smallpox, referred to in Wednesday's EXAMINER. The young men, who were aged 28 and 31 years, laid up on the 24th inst., and died in the hospital at Boston, on Monday last. The papers state that they contracted the disease by speaking to another person who subsequently laid up with the complaint.

WHO "JIM" IS.—Says the Picton Advocate: A friend writing from Moncton, says that "Jim," the man whom Carrell arrested there a year ago turns out to be the missing James Duffy, a former resident of Albert Co., N. B., who had not been heard from for 12 years. He was formerly a school teacher and a good musician. An old school mate of his and his own sister have called to see him in the penitentiary, but he denies any connection with them, and hides himself all he can.

What People Say about the wonderful bargains in Underwears now being given by us would fill a column with the most flattering of flattery—and yet not flattery, for every word would be true.

Test this assertion by calling and examining the Vests for yourself.

What We Said

about our great Premier Black and White Sale a few days ago we wish to repeat. It will be a unique sale for this city.

We bought large quantities of goods at prices the nearest to nothing we ever heard of, and we intend selling them at prices the nearest to nothing you ever heard of.

WOULD NOT FACE POVERTY.

Father, Mother and a Daughter End Their Lives Together in Paris.

Paris was stirred deeply on Monday night last by the news of the suicide of M. Caubet, brother of the late chief of police, and his wife and daughter.

Caubet was 63 years old, his wife about the same age, and his daughter 23. They lived in a pretty and comfortable flat in the rue des Martyrs.

Recently Caubet had lost heavily in business. The daughter had tried to support the family by giving music lessons, but could not earn enough for them.

As matters grew worse all three resolved to die. They sold some of their furniture, and used the money to buy a sumptuous dinner. After eating it they paid and dismissed their one servant, and signed a paper explaining their troubles and their motives in taking their lives.

Then they pasted papers over the cracks of the doors and windows, lighted two charcoal fires and each swallowed a vial of laudanum.

All three were found dead on the floor. The parents' apparatus had died painlessly. The daughter, however, had in her paroxysm torn her face with her nails.

NEWS NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. Glanville have gone to Biarritz, France.

General Gouk a Governor of Warsaw, who has been ill for a long time, is dying.

A 10 per cent. reduction in the wages of the G. T. R. trackmen west of Toronto has gone into effect.

Despatches from the continent say that the Czarina and the king of Denmark are suffering from influenza.

A remarkable strike of gold and silver ore is reported in the East Argentine district of Clear Creek, Cal.

Another big exodus of negroes from the Southern States to Africa is in progress. The majority are from Arkansas.

A man named Lawrence, residing in America, recently made a claim to the ownership of the Howley estates in Yorkshire. It is said that the sum of £14,000,000, or $70,000,000, has accumulated from the estates, and is now lying in the Treasury.

The British admiralty intend to abandon the use of 57-ton guns in its big battle ships, and the new fighting monster will be armed with nothing heavier than 50-ton weapons. The smaller guns can also be worked by hand, while the larger ones are useless if the loading machinery attached to them fails. The Jack Tar never fails.

The Halifax Herald points out that when Mr. Fielding made his first financial statement in 1884 he reported the provincial debt to be $271,570 and the assets $1,464,598. The net surplus was then $1,193,028. His last statement, nine years later, makes the debt $3,111,943 and the assets $1,266,110. The net surplus of over a million has been replaced by a net deficit of $1,764,932. The average annual revenue has been $684,000, and the average expenditure over $1,000,000 a year.

A large quantity of tea, condemned at the port of New York as unfit for consumption, has, according to the Commercial Journal and Bulletin, been gotten rid of by shipping it to Canada. According to the same paper, the New York importers agree that the authorities are right in forbidding its use in the United States. It would seem to be a good time for Canadian dealers to avoid buying cheap teas. The Canadian stomach should be as worthy of consideration as that of the resident of the United States.

The Chinese in San Francisco have taken no notice of the new registration law, and similar reports come from other parts of the States. The New Orleans collector expected his office to be crowded with Chinamen eager to register, but so far only one has presented himself. It looks as if the heathen Chinese was again going to prove too clever for the United States Legislature. The penalty for failure to register is deportation, but as there are over 100,000 Chinamen in the United States and it costs at least $70 a head to send them back to their own country, the chances are that they will be allowed to stay.

Remnants—Call to-day and get a bargain.—Moore & McLeod.

Over Forty Years has Pond's Extract been used by the people and profession as the best remedy for Pain, Sores, Catarrhs, etc. Note name of sole proprietors on every wrapper. Pond's Extract Co. New York and London.

DISCOUNTS EXTRAORDINARY.

Owing to the death of our senior partner, MR. HENRY MORGAN, and the consequent re-arrangement of the firm, we intend making an extraordinary effort during the month of January to reduce our stock to the lowest possible point, that everything may be in good shape for starting the new business in February. To accomplish this, we have decided to make even greater sacrifices than has been our custom in the Annual January sale. These sacrifices will be in the form of discounts, and will commence TUESDAY MORNING, 2nd January, and continue till the end of the month.
