Toronto Stocks

TORONO, (CP) — The stock market strengthened toward the close Wednesday after a session of lower prices that saw the heaviest trading in almost two months.

Closing strength came from base metals. Western oils, led by two issues that lost more than $1 each were down all day, and golds were mixed to slightly lower. Bathurst issues were down and uraniums and Manitouwadge issues were slightly stronger.

Western oils, weak for many sessions, were sparked to further losses by a Washington report in which the United States power commission was urged to reject bids to supply natural gas to the U. S. Pacific northwest. Pacific Petroleum dropped $1.37½ and Peace River Gas lost $1.30.
