Head, N. W. T., on Tuesday.

The man who wouldn't pay his tailor the clothes back.

There is a marked improvement in the condition of ex-President Arthur, but It is estimated that there has been a debt during March of about $14,250,000.

Great damage has been done to vegetation in Texas by a cold wave and frost.
The people in Galveston are wearing winter wraps.

By the loss of the brigantine Georgia the town of Liverpool, N. S., loses seven young men, who leave five widows and fifteen fatherless children.

A poster announcing a social festival in a church in a Penobscot county, Me., village ended with the stern notice "No firing allowed," in big letters.

The Czar and Czarina will soon visit the Crimea to inspect the fortifications of Sebastopol and Nicolaieff, and to witness the launching of ironclads.

Mr. Gladstone and Mr. Parnell are both confident that in a new election the Irish vote would give the Liberal party 60 additional seats in England.

The wife of one of the clergymen of Saranac, Mich., supplements her husband's meagre salary by driving a wagon and peddling milk from door to door.

The agreement between England and France respecting the French claims on the west coast of Newfoundland has been condemned by the Legislature of the colony.

The traffic receipts of the Canadian Pacific for the week ending the 21st March amounted to $127,500 against $92,000 in 1885, showing an increase of $35,500.

Additional orders for war material have been given by the Greek Government, and the London Times says it is possible Greece may precipitate a war within a week.

It is claimed that a lady in Oshkosh has a coffin for a bedstead, and every night lies down to rest in it with as much serenity as those who retire in the conventional manner.

The Liberty, the anarchists' organ published in Boston, declares that the Most faction is plotting to burn buildings and commit outrages upon property owners in New York.

The leading French newspapers take a gloomy view of the situation in the East.
Two French iron-clads have been ordered to be in readiness for immediate despatch to the Mediterranean.

A band of masked sophomores of the Cornell University succeeded in capturing and carrying away a banquet which was to have been spread for a number of freshmen and their class officers.

A man has written a letter to Sam Jones, saying that a debtor is trying to beat him out of $450. He tells Sam that if he (Jones) will preach that $450 out of the debtor he can have $100 of it.

Tom Sands was at work at the bottom of a well seventy feet deep, when a man at the top dropped a crowbar. He yelled, Tom looked up, saw the bar, and succeeded in dodging it as it came down.

The military telegraph wire from Fort Sully to Fort Yates, D. T., has just been taken down and sold to farmers for use as fence wire—which is merely a new form of beating swords into ploughshares.

An extensive Paris dry goods house have found advertising in America so satisfactory that they have given an order to place their business announcement in all the principal cities of the United States and Canada.

Somebody complimenting Huxley recently on his demolition of Mr. Gladstone's theological article upon "The Dawn of Creation," Huxley replied, "I care nothing about Gladstone's Genesis; I am only anxious to witness his Exodus."

The $3,000 sculling match between Hanlan and Ross, scheduled for June 24th, at Lachine, is understood to be off.
It is officially announced that Hanlan and Hosmer will row for $1,500 at Lake St. Joseph, near Quebec, on June 28th.
Hosmer confirms this.

The Lord Lieutenant of Ireland and Countess Aberdeen announce a garden party in Dublin for next month, at which the guests are requested to wear goods of Irish manufacture. The Nationalists say that the time for throwing such sopas to Cerberus is past.

Wade Hamilton, a negro porter on the Wagner sleeping car Eldorado, which left Chicago on Friday for Boston, was ill and left the car when it reached Syracuse, N. Y., on Saturday. He has been removed from his home to the pest house suffering from smallpox.

Trench says the tendency of words is to deteriorate. For instance, the word villain once simply meant a farmer and alderman meant a nobleman, and was applied by the Anglo-Saxons to dukes, earls, bishops, etc. Nowadays a farmer is not a villain (not necessarily) and aldermen are not usually classed with the nobility.

An action of ejectment is being brought now against the descendant of the great Flood, Gratian's contemporary and rival, Mr. Hanford Flood, of Flood-hall, Co. Kilkenny, to recover the Irish estates, of the value of at least, £10,000 a year. Mr. Hanford Flood is the father of Col. Flood, of the 19th Hussars, so distinguished in Egypt.

At Krupp's, in Essen, a railroad truck has just been built with sixteen axles.
It was made for the special purpose of transporting by rail a cannon, which is 50 feet long and weighs nearly 136 tons, from Essen to Spezzia, in Italy, by way of the St. Gothard tunnel. The truck is 76 feet long, and the axles are divided into groups of four, which easily adapt themselves to the curves in the road.

Thirty-two deadly poisons are used in the manufacture of wine. Of all poisonous liquors in the world, Bourbon whiskey is the deadliest. Strychnine is only one of the poisons in it. A certain oil is used in its manufacture, eight or ten drops of which will kill a cat in eight minutes, and a dog in nine minutes.
Wholesale dealers dare not drink the stuff they sell.

Michael Davitt, speaking at Leicester, said he did not impugn Chamberlain's motives for leaving the cabinet. The Nationalist party looked upon Chamberlain as a friend of Ireland. His scheme for the Government of that country was a generous one, but it failed to satisfy the demand of the Irish people. The speaker appealed to Chamberlain not to thwart Gladstone in carrying out his Irish projects.

Queen Victoria is not partial to journalists as a class. But her determination to exclude anything in the shape of a newspaper representative from the recent circus performance at Windsor Castle was frustrated by one enterprising journalist, who dressed himself up as a groom, and held up paper hoops for the equestriennes to jump through. This dauntless individual had a narrow escape, for his very literary-looking spectacles did not favor the impression that he was a circus groom, and were the subject of Royal suspicion and remark.

The birth of the first white child in Norfolk county took place in Walsingham in 1796. He is still living at St.
Williams, Major Daniel McCall. His grandfather, Donald McCall, belonged to the celebrated 42nd Highland regiment, and assisted in the capture of Louisbourg, C. B.; also in the capture of Quebec under Wolfe. His father, Duncan Mc-Call, was elected to the Upper Canada Parliament in 1829 and in 1832, and died in 1833, while attending the House in York (now Toronto). The Major himself served in 1812 and 1837.
Though 90 years old, he is hale and active, and his aged wife likewise.

Mr. P. T. Barnum's new elephant "Alice," the consort of the late "Jumbo," was fettered at the Zoo on Monday preparatory to shipping her to America.
She was in an obstinate and vicious mood, and a large force of workmen were occupied several hours in moving her a hundred yards, although she had been kept several days without food in order to weaken her physically and render her submissive. During the process of moving her she offered such powerful and dangerous resistance that it was resolved to immerse her in a pond close by when it should be reached. Her keepers and their assistants managed to get her into the water and partly submerged, but the huge beast drove them off by filling her trunk with water and squirting it upon them until they were nearly drowned, and waded back to terra firma. She was finally confined in the massive box in which she will make the journey to New York, but before she could be secured she had smashed several of the heavy timbers forming the framework and nearly demolished the front end of the structure in her furious efforts to escape. She was vigorously prodded about the head with a dozen or more sharp pointed pikes, and ultimately became moderately tractable. The managers and employes of the Zoo seem to be delighted to be relieved of the presence of the vicious brute.
