45 ACRES MADE AVAILABLE Strathgartney Park To Open On Dominion Day

Strathgartney Park, a 45-acre section lying in the south-eastern section of the former Stewart Estate, is expected to be ready to receive tourists by Dominion Day. Purchased from the estate of the late Hon. W. F. Alan Stewart, the property was presented to the Provincial Government last fall by Mr. Robert Cotton. The necessary improvements required to build camp sites and construct access roads were carried out under the supervision of the forestry division of the Provincial Department of Agriculture. One-half the cost involved is expected to be borne by the Federal Government, Hon. Mr. Cullen said yesterday. Such projects came within the scope of the tourist area development measures announced last winter as an unemployment stop-gap, Mr. Cullen noted.
