The Scott Act.

We often hear the passing remark, "Well, what do you think of the Scott Act now?"

There is no doubt that even during the time this Act was held in force in this City the uncertainty of the final decision in the Highest Court of Appeal in England greatly hampered the efforts of those interested in enforcing the Act, and encouraged the ill-will in defying the law.

We wonder not that the temperance advocate has abated in his energy, when he finds that any effort he may make is wholly useless, and could not insure the punishment of a single offender.

Stipendiary Magistrate's Court.

From the annual report, furnished by Mr. Tomlins, Clerk of the Stipendiary Magistrate's Court, we learn that the business transacted in that Court for the year ending Dec 31st, is summarized as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Description of cases and their counts. Includes items like 'The total number of assault cases were 44, of which 29 were convicted and 15 acquitted.'

As Guiteau was being taken out of the Court-room a recess, a few days ago, he stopped to speak to Mr. Scoville, when bailiff Tall attempted to move him along.

The Civic Election.

A BREEZE of excitement was created among civic politicians when, yesterday evening, it became known that Councillor McLean, Returning Officer for Ward Five, did not sign the election returns for that district.

In the election for Mayor and Councillors, held yesterday, the Returning Officer for Ward Five has, as yet, sent in no formal returns to the City Council, as required by section twelve of the Act of Incorporation.

On the strength of this opinion the oaths of office were duly administered to Mr. Hooper this afternoon.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 19.—The Atchafalaya River has overflowed its banks, submerging the adjacent lowlands, but no damage has yet been done to the New Orleans-Pacific Railroad.

MONTREAL, Jan. 21.—An important constitutional question, which has occupied the attention of the Dominion for four years, was finally decided yesterday by the legal chamber of the House of Lords in London.

False Report Contradicted.

To the Editor of the Examiner. SIR.—As I know that some untruthful parties, without any foundation whatever, circulated that I was largely indebted to the Bank of P. E. Island at the time it suspended payment, I can assure those untruthful parties, or any other person, that I was in no way whatever indebted to the Bank of P. E. Island when it suspended payment, or any other Bank.

Bank of P. E. Island.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

SIR.—It is confidently rumored that the resumption of business by the Bank of P. E. Island is retarded by the action of Judge Hensley in not doing his duty towards making up the amount necessary to be raised by the Directors.

NEWS NOTES.

The New Brunswick Legislature will meet on the 16th of February.

A steamship sailed from Annapolis for England last week, with 8,300 barrels of apples.

There has been a serious break in the American egg market, and prices now rule very low.

New South Wales, with a revenue of over $30,000,000 has a surplus of $1,000,000 for last year, and the Treasurer announced that no further foreign loans will be needed for many years.

It has come to light that a so-called Manitoba town, West Lynne, has been sold under false pretences. The lots offered were on the bank of the river immediately opposite Emerson White.

Another coal mining company has been organized in Cape Breton, with a capital of $500,000, of which $400,000 is to be immediately expended in developing and opening of the mine.

The French Government has forwarded a statement of the extreme concessions it is prepared to make in the categories disputed in the commercial treaty. They amount to from fifty to eighty per cent. of the English demand.

He—"May I call you Revenge?" She—"Why?" He—"Because 'Revenge is sweet.'" She—"Certainly you may, provided, though, you will let me call you Vengeance." He—"And why would you call me Vengeance?" She—"Because 'Vengeance is mine.'"

It is claimed on behalf of the present Nova Scotia Government that it has had a surplus on each year's operation, and that while completing one hundred and forty miles of railway, it has reduced the Provincial debt by eighty thousand dollars. No doubt its administration has been an energetic and economical one.

Costly electric light experiments on certain systems have proved a failure in some cases; but other experiments on other systems are proving successful, and are being rapidly multiplied; and discovery and invention are all the time at work for the removal of difficulties. The final issue scarcely seems doubtful.

The Administrator of the Dominion Government in Council has appointed fifteen eminent lawyers Queen's Counsel in the Province of Quebec. Some of the Montreal papers think the number should be larger. But the addition to the ranks of the legal luminaries of the Province entitled to wear silk seems quite respectable in point of size.

"Rumors and Juliet" was performed in real life the other day at Sioux City with an amply tragic denouement. The Iowa Juliet, wishing to test her lover's sincerity, pretended to take poison and die. Thereupon the Western Romeo, believing her to be really dead, poisoned himself in earnest and quite as effectively as his prototype of Verona.

"GLAD OF DEATH'S MYSTERY."—A young woman named Milner, living at the Morgan settlement, a short distance from Bear River village, while suffering from a morbid and depressing fit of melancholy, "Sick of life's history—glad of death's mystery," unsuccessfully sought the latter by the aid of pistol and bullet on Tuesday last. But destiny intervened, and the missile, striking a bone glanced aside, inflicting a wound not considered dangerous. We are informed that her physicians advised her to get up and go to work, which advice, no doubt, if rightly considered, was a correct prescription for such cases.—Annapolis, N. S., Journal.

STILL SOME MONEY IN THE COUNTRY.—It is only some fourteen weeks since the Finance Department opened a branch of the Government Savings Bank at Sussex, and in that time the deposits have amounted to $17,105. And at the same time the deposits have increased at every other branch throughout the Province, as well as at headquarters in St. John. There can be no doubt that there is a greater surplus of money in the hands of the farmers and of our people in New Brunswick generally (outside of St. John) than for many a year past.—St. John Sun.

DECLINE OF MAN.—Impotency of mind, limb, or vital function, nervous weakness, sexual debility, and all diseases caused by indigestion and abuse, are radically, and permanently cured by the use of Mack's Magnetic Medicine, which is for sale by all responsible druggists. Guiteau Found Guilty

GENERAL SATISFACTION!

Special Dispatch to the Examiner.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.

In the Guiteau trial Ex-Judge Porter, in his final argument, made a most scathing arraignment of Guiteau, arousing the prisoner's rage to the highest pitch. Guiteau constantly interrupted, and at every strong point in Mr. Porter's speech, made violent and abusive retorts; denouncing Porter as a lying whelp, and asserting that God Almighty would curse Porter, and that the nation would go down in blood if a hair of his (Guiteau's) head was touched.

At 3 o'clock, Mr. Porter concluded his argument, and Judge Cox at once began to read his charge to the jury. At 4:30 p. m. Judge Cox was still speaking. The Court room was so crowded that it was impossible for any person to get in or out of the room. The verdict of guilty was rendered. At fifteen minutes to five the jury retired from the Court room.

The delivery of the charge occupied one hour and a half, and was a most careful, clear and correct review of the law and evidence, and it left little ground for hope for any other verdict than that of guilty.

At 5:35 p. m. the jury came in and rendered a verdict of "Guilty as indicted."

Mr. Scoville will probably file a motion in arrest of judgment and for a new trial, or exceptions.

The assassin takes the verdict coolly. Guiteau is said by some to have appeared the coolest person in the court room at the time the verdict was announced, but Scoville believes, when the excitement attending the trial is over, he will be a raving maniac.

The news of Guiteau's conviction gives general satisfaction.

The number of persons charged before magistrates in England and Wales in the last year with being drunk and disorderly is more than double the number charged in 1863, nearly twenty years ago. In 1867 the number was 100,357; in 1868, 111,465; in 1869, 122,310; in 1870, 131,879; in 1871, 142,343; in 1872, 151,684; and in 1873, it leaped to 182,941, whereabouts it has stood. The increase of drunkenness is reported as among men; the crime has diminished among women.

About 6 acres of the Farm is cleared and in a high state of cultivation, the balance is covered with soft wood suitable for fencing. Around the shore and within 50 yards of the Barn Yard is to be had an abundant supply of sea manure, thereby enabling the owner to keep the Farm in good condition without the toil of obtaining Mangel Mud.
