

1st. TIGNISH COMPANY

Mrs. Smith, Field Secretary, paid a visit to Tignish Company Wednesday and enrolled the following girls: Vera Gaudet, Marie Shea and Viola DesRoche. Aella Perry is Captain of this fine company which meets every Wednesday at Dalton School. Mrs. Smith went over the Second Class work with the girls and urged them all to get their badge and try as many as possible to have this badge before their next visit. Games were played, songs sung, and the meeting ended with taps. Thank you Miss Perry and Guides it was nice being with you for a meeting.

1st ALBERTON

The following girls were enrolled at the meeting of the 1st Alberton on Wednesday by Mrs. Smith, Field Secretary, Ethel Albert, Mary Larter, Francis Larter, Janet Proffitt, Carol Perry, Geraldine Rooney, Nancy Smith, Ann Larter, Edna Arsenault, Helen Barrett. A number of ladies were present and they were anxious to be formed into a Local Association, this is being done and it should be of great assistance to Mrs. McRae and her helpers who are doing a fine job with this company. Games were played and the meeting ended with taps. Delicious refreshments were then served by the Guides and Ladies present. Mrs. Smith and Mrs. MacRae then went to the Hospital to enroll Ronni Rose McKinnon who has been sick with virus flu, but there she was, sitting up in bed being a real Guide and wearing a big Guide smile. All Guides hope that Ronni Rose will soon be up and able to be about soon.

THINKING DAY

On the Sunday nearest to Thinking Day all Companies are to attend Church in a body in full uniform. Do all your polishing and pressing Saturday night, don't forget, ties clean, pins shining, and all Guides in navy blue ankle socks, Brownies in brown ankle socks and all wearing either brown or black shoes.

LONES

Mrs. Osborne Lone Commissioner reports that at present there are 68 Lone Guides on the Island, three new Lones lately, Carol MacCallum, Marshfield and Judy Smithhurst also from Marshfield. There were 32 entries to the contest "How I spent my Christmas Day" the winners being: Ist. Gail Balderson, Cross Roads, Flora Woolner, Hunter River, Kathleen Sutherland, St. George's, with honorable mention to Mary Nicholson, Wood Island, Virginia MacKay, Brackley. All will be pleased to hear that the Lone Guides are really joining in the Thinking Day Rally with the weatherman permit. Mrs. Osborne is directing a "Musical Play" by mail with 24 Lone Guides taking part in it.

"The regular meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church Montague, was held in the vestry Tuesday evening. The vice-president, Mrs. Malcolm MacKenzie, presided, and the meeting opened with the call to worship, followed by the hymn "Lord Hear My Voice", was sung. The scripture lesson, John 3: 1-16 was read in unison, followed by the exposition; the theme being "For God sent His Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world through Him might be saved." A season of prayer closed with the Lord's Prayer in unison. Roll call was answered with a verse from scripture containing the word "Obey". The minutes of the last meeting were read by Mrs. A. D. MacLean and were approved as read. A number of the sick and shut-ins during the month, and the financial report was read by the treasurer, Mrs. H. E. Nelson. A committee was appointed to assist at the Women's World of Prayer service in the United Church on Feb. 25. The meeting closed with the hymn "My Hope is Built" and the Mizpah benediction.

Little Sands

Mr. Raymond Livingstone, Charlottetown, was at home in Hopefield from Jan. 24 to Jan. 28. Raymond is recovering from a serious ankle and heel injury received in a fall while working on the telephone line. His foot is in a cast and will have to remain there until March 25.

Mr. Cecil Alexander (Sandy) Blue, who joined the R. C. N., in January and left Little Sands for Charlottetown on Jan. 19 to join H. M. C. S. Queen Charlotte. Sandy is a son of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Blue, Little Sands. He expects to leave soon for Cornwall, N. S., to start a 6 months training course as Ordinary Seaman.

The funeral of Mr. John Meney, who died in Halifax recently, was held from the home of his brother, Mr. Thomas Meney, Little Sands on Jan. 25. Much sympathy goes to the bereaved.

Mr. Donnie Livingstone of the Naval Base of Halifax, was transferred to H. M. C. S. Queen Charlotte at Charlottetown recently.

The storm on Jan. 31, prevented our cream hauler from making his regular trips to Charlottetown with the cream. This was the first regular trip missed, and Mr. MacPherson kept at his job later this year than other previous years.

Considerable lumbering, cutting pulp wood, etc., is being done in Little Sands this winter. Hurricane "Edna" blew down many trees. People are trying to salvage the lumber before it spoils. Mr. John H. MacLean and sons did considerable lumbering for Mr. James Dixon. The Bell brothers from Abney are lumbering for Mr. Hugh MacNeill and Mr. Lennie Gambol of Wood Islands is lumbering on the farm known as "Soffies" farm. A great deal of fire wood on all the farms is being cut. The people in Little Sands are blessed with having wood on their own property.

"Whoever it was that said that 'life begins at forty', could possibly have had in mind Mr. Joseph MacGregor of Montague. Mr. MacGregor, who is a mature gentleman of 87, came out of retirement for a brief period at the Montague Curling Club on Thursday night to show the young fellows how it is done. Acting as skip for his team in the friendly competition, he slid the 40 lb. stones along the ice with sureness and accuracy that was the envy of many of the youthful onlookers. The mate on Mr. MacGregor's team was Mr. William MacLean, also of Montague and a mere youngster of 71. Mr. MacGregor was a charter member of the first curling club organized in Montague in 1927, and, although he no longer takes part in serious competition, is a life long, honorary member of the Montague Club, of which Mr. MacLean is the oldest active member.

Georgetown

Mr. Michael Burke arrived at his home in Georgetown from West Springfield, Mass., where he has been visiting his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Deveaux, since last autumn.

Friends of Mr. Earl Walsh are pleased to hear that he has returned home after spending several days in the Charlottetown Hospital.

Mr. John George of Saint John, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Currie, Sr.

Master Larry Currie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clair Currie of Charlottetown is visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred McQuillan.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Gotell are visiting in Charlottetown at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Currie.

Mr. Adolphus Scully returned to his home on Wednesday, Feb. 2nd after being a patient in the Charlottetown Hospital for several days.

The recent record cold weather has sealed over the town harbour. This is much earlier than has been usual in recent years, but on several of the coldest nights it was very calm and this provided conditions for sealing the harbour. Last winter the harbour did not freeze over at all and crossings were not even made on foot.

After having had to contend with the winter of an exceptionally mild January from its activity by Jack Frost, capably assisted by the hard-working manager, Mr. Michael Burke Jr. The first game of the season was played before a capacity crowd on Wednesday evening, Feb. 2nd when the local Eagles played to a 6-6 tie with the much publicized Montague Primroses.

Younger players of all age groups are to be witnessed daily spending their way to the rink for hockey practice, which is organized in the various age groups eligible for Physical Fitness playdowns.

Though minus several bright stars of former years, when Provincial Championships were the rule rather than the exception in Georgetown, the Eagles have had a good team. Several imports have been added to the lineup but in this respect the locals have not called in as many imports as many teams now playing intermediate hockey in the area.
