Howatt - King Wedding

Late autumn blooms from Beechwood garden were the setting for a pretty Fall wedding which took place in Zion Presbyterian Church, Charlottetown, October 15th, when Betty Zeld, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur King, Charlottetown, became the bride of Everett King Howatt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett K. Howatt, Sr., North Tryon.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. C. Webster with Mr. Frank Johnson presiding at the organ. During the signing of the register, Mr. Ivan Robinson sang very effectively "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, looked charming in an Elizabethan style gown of white satin with lace yoke and lily point sleeves. Her fingertip length veil of tulle illusion was caught to a Juliet cap of white satin. She carried a bouquet of red roses.

Mrs. Ralph Burdett, sister of the bride as matron of honour, was gowned in pale green taffeta with nylon yoke and inserts with mitts and Juliet cap to match.

The bridesmaid, Miss Nellie McBeth, was similarly gowned in mauve, while little Miss Pearl McBeth, as flower girl, wore pink taffeta with matching headdress. All attendants carried nosegays of mixed flowers.

Mr. Richard Howatt, brother of the groom, was groomsmen. The ushers were Mr. Ralph Burdett and Mr. Keith Robinson.

For the occasion the bride's mother chose a dress of forest green crepe with black feather hat and matching accessories. Her corsage was of pink carnations. The groom's mother wore a dress of navy crepe with black accessories and a corsage of deep rose carnations.

The reception was held in Zion Hall with the toast to the bride being proposed by Mr. Webster and responded to by the groom. Serving were members of the 11th Company of Girl Guides of which the bride was a former leader.

Amid a shower of good wishes the happy young couple left on a honeymoon trip to points of interest in the Maritimes.

For travelling the bride chose a suit of Oxford grey wool flannel with matching topcoat, burgandy velvet hat and accessories. Her corsage was of pink carnations.

On their return they will reside in Tryon. Prior to her marriage, Miss Gladys Hart and Miss Suzanne McKinnon entertained in the bride's honor at the latter's home. A miscellaneous shower was held at the home of Mrs. Walter Downie, Highland Ave. Lovely gifts were also received from the staff of West Kent School, Zion Church Choir and the Guilders Club.

MacDougall - MacKenzie Wedding

Canoe Cove Presbyterian Church was the scene of a very pretty autumn wedding on Thursday, September 25th at 4:30 p.m., when Caroline Esther, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander MacKenzie, Canoe Cove, became the bride of Allan Lloyd MacDougall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert MacDougall of the same place.

Autumn leaves, ferns, baskets of gladioli and mixed flowers formed the setting for the double ring ceremony which was performed by the Rev. G. C. Webster. Mrs. Mervin MacPhee was the organist and Mrs. Cecil MacKenzie sang "I Love You Truly" and "O Perfect Love".

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a full length gown of white nylon net over slipper satin, and lace fitted jacket with lily point sleeves and Peter Pan collar embroidered with seed pearls. Her fingertip veil fell from a coronet of seed pearls and rhinestones. She carried a bouquet of red roses and maiden hair fern.

Mrs. Clifford Moffatt, sister of the groom, was matron of honour. She wore a gown of pale pink sheer with fitted bodice and short puffed sleeves. Her headdress was a halo of pink flowers and net and she wore matching net mitts. Her bouquet was of white gladioli.

Miss Helen Henson, wife of her cousin's bridesmaid, wore a gown of pale blue nylon net with sequin trim and a matching bolero. Her headdress was a halo of blue flowers and net and she wore matching net mitts. Her bouquet was of yellow roses.

Mr. Joe MacKenzie, brother of the bride, was groomsmen, and the ushers were Messrs. Glen MacFadyen and Louis Livingstone, cousins of the bride and groom.

Following the ceremony a reception for sixty guests was held at the home of the bride's parents. The toast to the bride was proposed by the Rev. G. C. Webster, with the groom responding.

The bride's mother wore a mauve dress with black velvet hat and accessories. Her corsage was of yellow rose buds. The groom's mother's dress was of black faille with multicolor trimming, with which she wore black accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

The happy couple left by car for a short honeymoon trip. For travelling the bride chose a cherry wine gabardine suit with black accessories. Her corsage was of white gladioli.

Previous to her marriage the bride was tendered a miscellaneous shower in Canoe Cove Hall, where she was the recipient of many lovely and useful gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. MacDougall will reside in Ontario, where the groom is employed at A. V. Roe's, Malton.

Sciortino-Mullen Wedding

White gladioli adorned the altar of the Church of the Ascension of Our Lord, Westmount, on Saturday, September 27th, for the marriage of Doris Catherine Mullen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mullen of Bedford, P. E. I., to Mr. Joseph Sciortino of Montreal, son of Professor J. S. and Mrs. Sciortino, Malta.

Rev. Fr. F. J. Feron performed the marriage ceremony and Nuptial Mass.

During the Mass, the organist rendered Schubert's "Ave Maria," and Caesar Franck's "Pavane Angelique."

The bride was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Mr. Patrick Moroney, and was attended by her sister, Miss Marie Mullen. R. N. Mr. Gilles Gauvin acted as best man.

The bride was attended in a floor length gown of ice pink satin and Chantilly lace with matching headdress, and a veil of ice pink illusion. She carried a semi-cascade of deep pink roses.

The maid of honour was attired in a floor length gown of pale blue taffeta and nylon net with matching headdress and mitts. She carried a semi-cascade of white carnations.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Berkeley Hotel. The bride's table was adorned with mixed gladioli and fern, and centered with a three tier wedding cake. A toast to the young couple was proposed by the best man and responded to by the groom.

Mr. and Mrs. Sciortino left by plane for a wedding trip to New York City. For travelling the bride chose a navy suit with dusty pink hat, navy blue accessories, and shoulder spray of pink roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Sciortino will reside in Montreal.

TRYON W. I.

—The Tryon Women's Institute monthly meeting was held at the home of Mrs. George Robblee on October 13th. The meeting opened with the Ode and the Creed, the president in the chair. Fifteen members responded to roll call and one visitor was present.

The minutes were read and adopted. Mrs. Jones reported she had not heard from Dr. Dewar, and the treasurer reported $76.91 taken at the bean supper.

An adult sewing class was organized, and it was decided to send for capsules for the school children.

Correspondence was read and discussed, and the school committee reported some books needed. The sick committee reported two calls made.

It was moved, seconded and carried that lunches be sold at the Shur Gain Cavalcade, and that $10.00 be given for pins for the South Shore Musical Festival. The meeting next month will be at Mrs. Spurgeon Clark's. This is the annual meeting and roll call will be answered by paying membership fee. The lunch committee will be Mrs. Geo. Robblee, Mrs. Jones, and Mrs. R. Gamble.

The meeting closed in the usual manner and lunch was served by the committee.
