Anniversary Recalls Splendid Record Of Christian Service

United Church at Alberton

On Sunday, October 21st, the United Church congregation at Alberton celebrated the 120th anniversary of its founding. Rev. A. S. Weir of Pownal, president of the Maritime Conference and a former pastor will be guest speaker and special music will be rendered by the choir under direction of Mr. C. R. Leard. The minister, Rev. A. R. Wallis, will conduct the services. There will be public worship at 11 a.m. and 7.30 p.m. with a congregational fellowship service at 3 p.m. when a brief summary of the aims and activities of each organization in the church will be read from former ministers. It will be a day of rejoicing in a great heritage and of looking forward with prayer and earnest endeavor to the tasks which lie ahead. The edifice in which the United Church congregation at Alberton assembles for worship each Sunday was erected in 1856 and is an inheritance from the Presbyterian Church which in 1925 entered into union with the Methodist Church to form the United Church of Canada.

The beginnings of the Presbyterian Church in Alberton date back to 1831 when heads of fourteen families organized a congregation. These men were Alexander Bell, James Clark, Charles Craswell, John Forsythe, James Forsythe, John Gordon, Robert Gordon, William Hardy, Robert Hardy, James Hardy, John Hewitt, William Warren, James Wells and John Wells. In 1835 the first elders were ordained by Rev. John Keir of Malpeque. They were John Gordon, father of the Erromanga martyrs, Robert Gordon of Cascumpec, James Forsythe of Alberton, Robert Hardy of Kildare and Charles Gordon of Cascumpec.

About the time these elders were ordained a small church was built near what is now the old dock cemetery and it served as a place of worship for nearly twenty years. In 1854 a larger building was erected near the same place and finished outside. The following year, when the interior was almost finished, it was completely destroyed by fire.

New Site
A site was then secured on the top of a hill to the eastward, part of which is now Hillcrest cemetery, and the main body of the old Dock Church was erected. It is not known definitely when the building was completed but one may assume that it took several years as the finances of the congregation must have been severely strained by the building of two churches in so short a period. The first settled minister of the congregation was Rev. J. C. Sinclair who served from 1834 to 1852. He was followed in 1855 by Rev. Allan Fraser. So far as is known there was at this time no Protestant church west of Louis 10 and 11, and the territory served by Mr. Fraser was extremely large. Families were scattered and much of his travelling was done on horseback.

The hardship of ministering to so large a field broke down his health and in 1870, at the early age of forty-five years, he passed to his reward. Older people of the community can recall the affection, pride and respect, with which their parents spoke of Mr. Fraser. His gift of leadership won him a high place in Presbyterian and in the councils of the great Temperance movement of his day. He may well be regarded as one of the pioneers of Protestantism in West Prince County. Five years before his death the sections of West Cape, Brae and Campbellton separated from his congregation to form a new one.

Circuit Connection
Rev. A. F. Carr became minister in 1871. Shortly after his arrival a number of Methodists who, up to this time, had been attending Presbyterian services, erected a church on the site now occupied by the United Church, and became part of a circuit which already existed. As the rules of the Methodist church did not permit long pastorates, no less than seven ministers were associated with Rev. Mr. Carr during his eighteen year pastorate in the Presbyterian church.

They were Rev. Levi Johnston, 1872-1875; Rev. Aquila Lucas, 1875-1878; Rev. Joseph Sellers, 1878-1881; Rev. H. R. Baker, 1881-1883; Rev. M. R. Knight, 1883-1889; Rev. W. E. Reynolds, 1889-1899. During this period churches were built in surrounding communities, leaving the parent Presbyterian church at Alberton as Rev. Carr's only congregation. The circuit to which the Alberton Methodist church belonged also underwent some changes and churches at Montrose, Miminogash, Cascumpec and West Devon were served by the minister living at Alberton from that time until the church union in 1925. Although this was a time when many different Protestant churches were being built, it was a period of rivalry in some places, the happiest relations always existed between ministers and people of the churches in Alberton. When in due time choirs were organized in both churches the Presbyterians did not have anyone capable of directing the music and Mr. R. Leard, leader of the Methodist choir, trained the Presbyterian choir as well, without any gratuity whatsoever. He continued to be leader of the Methodist choir until church union, and of the United Church choir until his death.

Succeeding Pastors
Rev. Mr. Carr was succeeded in the Presbyterian Church by Rev. J. K. Fraser, elder son of Rev. Allan Fraser who was ordained to the ministry and inducted into his fathers' church on August 26, 1891. The first Sunday of his ministry was marked by another event of interest in the life of the congregation. On that day an organ was first used for service on the Lord's Day. Prior to this it had been used for midweek prayer meetings but a tuning fork still set the pitch for psalms and hymns on the Sabbath. The first organ was Miss Margaret Rogers, now Mrs. Cecil Stewart of Charlottetown. The old high pulpit had been removed as had doors from the pews and during Mr. Fraser's ministry, the church hall and choir loft were built. Until this time the choir had sat in the gallery. While Mr. Fraser was minister of the Presbyterian congregation 1891-1898 the Methodists were shepherded by Rev. G. M. Fisher (1889-1890), Rev. William Lawson (1890-1893), Rev. Thomas Hicks (1893-1896), and Rev. John Goldsmith 1896-1900. Following week of prayer services in 1896, conducted jointly by Mr. Fraser and Mr. Hicks, there was a great spiritual awakening among their people. By request the meetings were continued a second week and, by further request, for several more weeks. There was no excitement or unusual outward manifestation but the Holy Spirit seemed to be present with power among the people and his work continued in their hearts.

Church Union
On June 10, 1925, both congregations became part of the United Church of Canada, with the exception of some members of the Presbyterian Church who did not wish to enter the union. In 1926 the former Methodist church was moved eastward to another lot and became the church home of those Presbyterians who did not enter union. The old Dock church was moved to the site previously occupied by the Methodist church and is now the United Church of Canada in Alberton. Since 1926 ministers of the congregation have been Rev. J. R. Miller 1926, Rev. A. S. Weir 1926-1934, Dr. George Ross 1934-1936, Rev. M. K. Charman, 1936-1941, Rev. G. N. Somers 1941-1943, Rev. J. M. Fraser 1943-1948, Rev. P. A. Fitzpatrick 1948-1951. The present minister, Rev. A. R. Wallis, was inducted in July, 1951. Alberton congregation gave to the Presbyterian Church in Canada its first martyrs. On the east wall of the church, above the old Gordon pew is a bronze tablet which reads: "In honoured memory of two missionaries from this congregation, George Nico-

Deanery Meeting At Alberton

The Ruridecanal Chapter of the Deanery of Prince Edward Island met in the St. Peter's Church Rectory on Thursday afternoon, October 18th. The meeting was presided over by Rev. A. E. Pierce, the rural dean. Present were: Rev. Canon E. M. Malone, D.D., Rev. J. T. Abbott, Rev. W. G. Hogg all of Charlottetown, Rev. R. W. B. Coupland, Kensington, the Venerable G. R. Harrison, Summerside, Rev. L. A. Dignan, Portland, Hon. Capt. the Rev. W. J. Phillips, home on leave from the 27th Brigade, and Rev. J. R. McMahon, Alberton, secretary of the chapter. A motion of appreciation of the services rendered by Rev. Stanley Armstrong of Crapaud, to the church in Prince Edward Island and particularly in connection with the church center at Crapaud, was passed with regret that his departure from P. E. I. and best wishes for his happiness and success in his new parish at Day-spring, Lunenburg County, N. S. Business in connection with the work of the church in P. E. I., was discussed.

Thanks were expressed to Mrs. J. R. McMahon and Mrs. W. J. Phillips, who assisted her for the wonderful dinner served members of the chapter. The chapter adjourned to meet again early in January.

town of Summerside will bring their children in by train, and officials in charge feel that there will be considerable response to the questionnaire sent out to rural school teachers to ascertain the numbers of their pupils who can be brought to the city.

The Canadian Legion and Daughters of the Empire will also occupy specially reserved places, as well as the nurses of the various hospitals and Sanatorium, along with their patients. If any fraternal organizations or other groups wish a spot reserved along the route of march, this will be provided upon application to Brig. Reid.

Schedule Outlined

The Royal visitors, who will be accompanied here by Hon. R. H. Winters, Federal Minister of Resources and Development, and Mrs. Winters, on arrival at the C. N. R. station at 11.30 a. m. will be met by His Honour the Lieutenant Governor, the Premier, His Worship the Mayor, and their wives. A guard of honour from the R. C. A. F. Station, Summerside, will be in attendance, complete with colour party and supported by the 45-piece Central Training Command Band. On the arrival of the Royal party, the 28th Light A.A. Regiment will fire a twenty-one gun salute.

After inspecting the guard Their Royal Highnesses and their entourage will leave for the Provincial Building via Weymouth, East Road, Euston, Queen, Craton, Weymouth Streets, Longworth Avenue, Mount Edward Road, to the Experimental Farm, where they will be introduced to the Superintendent and Mrs. Parent by the Hon. C. C. Baker, Minister of Agriculture. They will then stroll across the lawn and plant an oak tree, which has grown from an acorn which came from an oak planted in 1919 by His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, now the Duke of Windsor. It is noteworthy that the original tree planted by the Prince of Wales came from the farm of Premier Jones at Bunbury.

The Princess will examine the trees planted by other members of the Royal family and other notables and then move to a nearby marquee to examine an aerial photo relief map of the central section of the Province, where she will present awards to four gold cord Girl Guides, eight King Scouts, and also to Sergeant W. M. Bell, Summerside detachment, R. C. M. P.

A representative of the I. O. D. E. will then present Her Highness with a bouquet of flowers as a mark of loyalty on behalf of the Island chapters of this Order. The Royal Party will then move to an adjacent marquee where they will see a display of Island foxes and mink, assembled for the occasion by Dr. C. K. Gunn, of the Dominion Experimental Fox Farm, Summerside.

Immediately following their inspection of these animals Their Highnesses and party and approximately forty invited guests will repair to the residence of the Superintendent where elected members of the Women's Institute Executive of the Province will serve tea on behalf of the Superintendent and Mrs. Parent. Following tea the Royal Party will drive through the Experimental Station grounds and make their way via Mount Edward Road, Longworth Avenue, Weymouth and Fitzroy Streets to the Charlottetown Forum, where they will be spectators at the opening period of a regular Big Six hockey fixture. This appearance in the Forum is being made in order to allow hockey patrons to have a first-hand view of Their Highnesses.

Following their appearance in the Forum they will return to their special car at the C.N.R. station via Fitzroy and Weymouth Streets.

Government Dinner

At 7.45 Their Highnesses will leave their railway car and proceed to the Charlottetown Hotel via Weymouth and Kent Streets. Upon arrival at the hotel they will be greeted by the Premier and other dignitaries and will proceed to the lounge, where approximately fifty couples not previously presented to Their Highnesses during the day will be presented prior to the special Government dinner in honour of the Royal couple. The selection of the guests invited to the dinner has been made by following the full official precedence list, with the addition of Mayors of all the Provincial municipalities and their wives. All other guests have been selected on the basis of their official capacity, or of their organizational work in connection with the visit.

During the dinner suitable background music will be provided by outstanding local artists. After the toast to His Majesty, His Royal Highness the Duke of Edinburgh will say a few words. At approximately 10 o'clock the Royal party will leave the Hotel via Kent and Prince Streets for the Railway wharf, where they will be bid adieu by local officials and sail for Sydney, N. S., on H. M. C. S. Ontario.

During the luncheon period at Government House, band selections will be rendered by the band from H. M. C. S. Ontario on the adjacent lawn. Prior to and during tea at the Experimental Farm the R. C. A. F. Central Training Band will give a concert, and prior to the game at the Charlottetown Forum the 17th Recce Band will render suitable music. At 10.30, as the ship is leaving the harbour a special display of fireworks under supervision of local Fire Department members will be touched off at Canon Hill, Victoria Park.

Upon conclusion of this ceremony the Royal couple and their entourage will proceed to Government House via Queen, Water, Rochford, Brighton Road, Ambrose Street, McGill Avenue, North River Road and the Park Roadway. At Government House they will be guests of His Honour Lieutenant Governor and Mrs. Prowse at private luncheon.

S'ide School Children To See Princess, Prince

Summerside school children can now be assured that they will see Princess Elizabeth and Prince Philip after all. Mayor Henry Wedge said yesterday that arrangements have been completed to transport the children to Charlottetown on the day of the royal visit and the committee in charge of plans is seeing to it that they will be in a place where they will get more than just a passing glance at the royal couple.

Mayor Wedge is much interested in this project because, as a member of the town council when the King and Queen were here in 1940, he supervised a similar excursion. He had previously announced that he was afraid arrangements could not be made this time for a special train.

However, he said yesterday that the railway authorities have cooperated well and it has now been decided to hold the regular train leaving Summerside at 10.30 to 11.30 on that day and extra cars will be added to accommodate the ly welcome Their Highnesses to the Province, and make a presentation on behalf of the Province, this part of the ceremony will be broadcast by a special address system as well as being put over the C.B.C. network. The platform will be so arranged that the public should get a very good view of Their Highnesses.

Immediately following this ceremony Their Highnesses will leave the Provincial Building, passing through ranks of war veteran amputees, who will be drawn up in the lower hall of the Provincial Building, and will leave for the City Hall via Richmond and Queen Streets.

At City Hall they will be met by the Acting Mayor and his lady, and escorted to the Mayor's office where they will sign the City Visitors' Book and from there proceed to the Council Chamber, where the City Council, Water Commissioners, Commissioners, and other City officials and their wives will be presented, and the presentation made of an illuminated address and suitable gift.

Upon conclusion of this ceremony the Royal couple and their entourage will proceed to Government House via Queen, Water, Rochford, Brighton Road, Ambrose Street, McGill Avenue, North River Road and the Park Roadway. At Government House they will be guests of His Honour Lieutenant Governor and Mrs. Prowse at private luncheon.

At Experimental Farm

At 3 p.m. Their Highnesses will set out from Government House via the Park Roadway, Brighton Road, Euston, Queen, Craton, Weymouth Streets, Longworth Avenue, Mount Edward Road, to the Experimental Farm, where they will be introduced to the Superintendent and Mrs. Parent by the Hon. C. C. Baker, Minister of Agriculture. Evening Trip Of Borden Ferry

It has now been arranged that an evening trip of the Car ferry from Borden to nine p. m. will be a definite one every week-day night. Heretofore evening trips of the Car ferry have not been on a schedule since the double daily service terminated on September 30th, the last definite scheduled trip since then being at 4:30 p. m. As a result many people did not know for sure whether there would be an evening freight trip or not. During week day evenings the car ferry will leave Cape Tormentine at ten thirty p. m. The ferry invariably was making evening freight trips and now that the nine p. m. trip from Borden and ten thirty p. m. trip from Cape Tormentine are definitely set times this will be a source of great satisfaction to the travelling public.

The Sunday schedule for the last trip will be six forty five p. m. from Borden and eight p. m. from Cape Tormentine. The above trips are, of course, in addition to the regular trips which take place at earlier times during the day.

The above information was received late yesterday by telephone from Mr. J. Watson MacNaught, M.P. to B. Graham Rogers, local director of transportation.
