

Man the Destroyer.

It is stated that the quagga, the beautiful striped ass of South Africa, has suddenly ceased to exist. The bootmakers of London and New York wanted his skin for a particular kind of sportsman's boot, and he consequently passed away out of zoology.

Most Fellows Know.

When Mr. Jenkins went to his bedroom at half-past one it was with the determination that he would not be interviewed by Mrs. Jenkins. So as soon as he entered the door, and deposited his lamp upon the dressing-table, he commenced his speech:—"I locked the front door. I put the chain on. I pulled the key out a little bit. The dog is inside I put the kitten out. I emptied the drip-pan of the refrigerator. The cook took the silver to bed with her. I put a cane under the knob of the back hall door. I put the fastenings over the bathroom windows. The parlor fire has been out. I put the cake-box back in the closet. I did not drink all the milk. It is not going to rain. Nobody gave me any message for you. I mailed your letters as soon as I got down town. Your mother did not call at the office. Nobody died that we are interested in. Did not hear of a marriage or engagement. I was very busy at the office making out bills. I have hung my clothes over chair-backs. I want a new erg for my breakfast. I think that is all and I will put out the light.

Wise and Otherwise.

The Sultan has 300 cooks. It makes one sick to think of the broth. Does a bonnet sing because it is covered with birds? No; but the husband who pays for it whistles. A student of human nature says anything can be sharpened. Put a lead pencil in a woman's hand and see. "Jack your wife is not so pensive as she used to be." "No; she has left off that and turned expensive." The woman who said she wouldn't marry the best man living kept her word. She married a very poor specimen. A philosopher who married a vulgar girl used to call her "brown sugar," because, he said, she was sweet, but unrefined. "Your behaviour is most singular, sir," said a young lady to a gentleman who had stolen a holiday kiss. "Ah, forgive me," he replied, "I herewith make it plural."

is not only very palatable, but the remedial power of these valuable specifics is greatly increased, and as a remedy for consumption, scrofula, emaciation, or where there is loss of flesh and nerve power, it is remarkable in its results. Take no other.

Harper's Young People. An Illustrated Weekly.

HARPER'S YOUNG PEOPLE has been called "the model of what a periodical for young readers ought to be," and the justice of this commendation is amply sustained by the large circulation it has attained both at home and in Great Britain. This success has been reached by methods that must commend themselves to the judgment of parents, no less than to the tastes of children—namely, by an earnest and well sustained effort to provide the best and most attractive reading for young people at a low price. The illustrations are copious and of a conspicuous high standard of excellence. An epitome of everything that is attractive and desirable in juvenile literature.—Boston Courier. A weekly feast of good things to the boys and girls in every family which it visits.—Brooklyn Union. It is wonderful in its wealth of pictures, information, and interest.—Christian Advocate, N. Y.

Terms: Postage Prepaid, $2 per Year. Vol. VIII. commences November 2, 1886. SINGLE NUMBERS, Five Cents each. Remittances should be made by Post-Office Money Order or Draft, to avoid chance of loss. PARSONS' PILLS

These pills were a wonderful discovery. No others like them in the world. Will positively cure or relieve all manner of disease. The information around each box is worth ten times the cost of a pill. One box will do more to purify the blood and cure chronic ill health than $5 worth of any other remedy yet discovered. If people could be made to realize the marvelous power of these pills, they would walk 100 miles to get a box if they could not be had without. Sent by mail for 25 cents in stamps. Illustrated pamphlet free, postpaid. Send for it; the information is very valuable. I. S. JOHNSON & CO., 22 Custom House Street, BOSTON, MASS.
