Old Iggy, big brown Old Iggy who lived around here for a while, is different. He likes chickens and he is plenty big enough to catch and eat them. I wouldn't trust him near them for a minute. What are you staring at?

Tommy pointed up to Old Iggy whom by chance he had seen when the latter moved "It looks like a Dragon to me," he whispered.

"It is Old Iggy!" cried the other. "Now I know what has become of my chickens! You wished you could see him. Well, you've got your wish."

The great Lizard, five feet and perhaps a little more in length, did look much as Dragons are supposed to look. On his head and along his back was a sort of crest of spines. His long tail was stout enough to look as if a blow from it might hurt.

"I've heard that Iguana is good to eat," said Tommy.

"That fellow ought to be. He's been living on my chickens," replied their owner.

Good Friday Services In O'Leary Churches

West Devon
—At the West Devon United Church at 11 a.m. on Good Friday there was a very large attendance at the service conducted by members of the West Devon United Church Young Peoples Union. The President, Miss Ruby Cornish capably presided. The Responsive Reading was led by Mrs. Russell Boylan. The Scripture was read by Miss Shirley Griggs, student at Prince of Wales College in Charlottetown who is home on her Easter vacation. She has always been an active worker in the Young Peoples Union. Prayer was offered by Arthur Graham. The minister, Rev. W. G. Dickson cordially welcomed the guest speaker, Mr. Owen Underwood of O'Leary, the student minister of the Church of the Nazarene and the guest soloist Miss Evelyn Gay of O'Leary. She was heard to advantage in a sacred selection "Jesus is Standing in Philate's Hall." Mr. Underwood was heard in a most interesting address on the significance of Good Friday. The choir with Mrs. Charles Moreshead as organist led in the service of song. The minister complimented the congregation on the fine attendance despite the very muddy roads. The service concluded by the Benediction being pronounced by Miss Cornish.

Bloomfield

At 2 p.m. in the Bloomfield United Church on Good Friday there was a very largely attended service under the auspices of the Bloomfield United Church Young Peoples Union. The President, Harry MacAusland, presided. Miss Helen Hardy led in the responsive reading and Miss Eileen Cornish led in prayer. The choir with Mrs. Earl Palmer as organist rendered the favorite hymns of Good Friday. The sermon was preached by the minister, Rev. W. G. Dickson of O'Leary who gave a heart searching message on Christ's sacrifice on Cavalry's Cross. The service concluded by the Benediction.

O'Leary

At 8 p.m. in the O'Leary United Church there was a joint Good Friday service at which the Knutsford Baptist Church and the O'Leary and Nazarene Churches participated. One year ago on Good Friday the three churches presented a splendid Good Friday pageant and they were practicing for one for this Good Friday but the flu epidemic intervened so it was not possible to present the pageant, so it was decided to have the joint service. Despite the muddy roads, making the going virtually impassable in places, the spacious United Church was filled. The minister, Rev. W. G. Dickson presided and cordially welcomed the large congregation speaking about the fine feeling which exists among the different churches and of the splendid response to the special services during Holy Week and the several services held during Good Friday. After the devotional, there was a number by the United Church Mission Band entitled "An Easter Worship Service." Taking part were Jean MacKinnon, Cynthia Kennedy, Lella Dignan, Lana Turner, Karol Bernard, and Sandra Matthews. The next item was a solo by Audrey MacGregor. "The Old Rugged Cross," which was followed by the Scripture lesson read by Mr. Owen Underwood, minister of the Church of the Nazarene. The Baptist Mission Band was represented by two girls, Georgia Yeo and Opal Silliker, who sang a duet. Then followed an address on "Sin" by Rev. C. O. Hewlett of the Baptist Church. He illustrated his message with reference to the seven last words from the Cross.

Misses Evelyn Gay and Lorraine MacNeill were heard in a duet "Must Jesus Bear the Cross Alone" followed by a number by the Canadian Girls in Training of the O'Leary United Church entitled "Jesus Christ Is Risen Today". Then followed a trio from the Baptist Church entitled "The Broken Heart" sung by three sisters, Mrs. Melvin Ellis, Mrs. Ernest Johnson and Mrs. Ralph Ellis. After the offering was dedicated Miss Evelyn Gay sang a solo "Jesus is Standing in Philate's Hall".

Then followed a short address by Mr. Underwood, student pastor of the Nazarene Church after which there was a trio from the Nazarene Church who sang "I Remember Cavalry" composed of Miss Evelyn Gay, Winifred Brooks and Owen Underwood. Prayer was offered by Rev. W. G. Dickson and Mr. Underwood. The United Church Choir sang an anthem "Sleep Peacefully." The last item was a duet entitled "The Christ of the Cross" by Mrs. Melvin Ellis and Mrs. Ralph Ellis. This fine worship service was brought to a conclusion by the singing of "There is a Green Hill Far Away" after which the Benediction was pronounced by the chairman. The organists were Mrs. J. M. MacWilliams, Mrs. Lewis Bernard and Mrs. Melvin-Ellis.

O'Leary Corner

At St. Luke's Anglican Church, O'Leary Corner, there was a fine Good Friday service in the morning conducted by the rector, Rev. J. R. McMahon of Alberton. The service was well attended. The organist Mrs. Ben Webb and the choir led in the singing of the old familiar hymns.

contest. Meeting was brought to a close by an appropriate hymn for the month of March.

On Sunday evening, March 18, neighbors and relatives of Mrs. Alphonse M. Arsenaull, St. Chrysostome, gathered at her home to celebrate with her, her 84th anniversary. Upon entering, the ladies escorted Mrs. Arsenaull (Aunt Mary as she is called by many), to a chair where an address was read by Mrs. Willie Arsenaull, a grand-daughter, and a gift in sort of a joke was presented to her. This caused much laughter, especially by the grand old lady herself, as she is always ready for a joke. Then all joined in social chat, music and singing. She also sang several old songs which were enjoyed by all. Then a delicious lunch was served by her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Rony Arsenaull, assisted by some of the ladies. When everyone was at the table, Mrs. Arsenaull was again surprised by another address and a lovely pair of pillow cases and a box of candies were presented to her. Although taken completely by surprise she thanked one and all for their thoughtfulness in a few well-chosen words. Then all departed, wishing her many more birthdays to come.
