Junior Abbies Edge C. And B. Juniors 5-4 To Even Playoff Series

Ev. MacNeill's Junior Abbies, a replica of Leo Durocher's type of ball team led by the brilliant Donnie MacLean, defeated the Curran and Briggs Juniors 5-4 in an eleven inning thriller at Summerside yesterday afternoon to even the best of three Island League Baseball finals at one game a piece.

The fighting, hustling crew of Abbies who were never behind in yesterday's game came through with the winning run after two men were out in the top of the eleventh. "Cuker" Pineau scored the winner by crossing the plate on Cliff Ready's infield single.

The game was a bitterly played, spirited contest between two aggressive ball teams, neither of which liked the taste of defeat and neither of which gave or asked any quarter in a battle between two of the Province's top pitching artists.

Donnie "Funnell" MacLean, strong-armed righthander of the Abbies had one of his greatest days as he set down the powerful Summerside Juniors on six hits, two of them scratch singles. MacLean was charged with four runs but none of them were earned and had the no-hit author been given perfect support not a runner would have crossed the Abbies plate.

Benny Carson, who survived a shaky second inning in which four runs were scored against him, came back to hurl eight successive scoreless frames before the Abbies finally obtained the winning run. Carson set the Abbies down without a run from the second to eleventh innings.

The Curran and Briggs Juniors made the score 4-2 in the fourth and they came up with two more in the sixth to knot the score at 4-4. From then onto the end it was a spine-tingling duel with the work of MacLean and Carson standing out like beacon lights. Only three men reached third base in the last five innings, one of them being "Cuker" Pineau the man who scored the winning run. One of the others, "Duck" MacLeod was cut off by Joe Dalton's throw to the plate in the eighth inning. The other player, Neil Walker, was left stranded in the last of the eleventh.

"Cuker" Pineau, who was outstanding on the field and at the plate started off the fateful eleventh inning by getting to first base after being struck on the forearm by a pitch. He was sacrificed to second by Charlie Kennedy and moved to third on Brian Lewis' infield out.

Cliff Ready hit a Carson pitch down the third base-line and Pineau broke for home. The Curran and Briggs 14-year-old third baseman Grant Grady made the play at first and it was close but base judge Phillips called the runner safe allowing Pineau to cross the platter with the Abbies fifth run.

Curran and Briggs threatened to get back in the game in the last of the inning. With one away Neil Walker hit a sharp single down the third base-line. He stole second and went to third on Joe Dalton's infield out. He stayed there as the last Summerside batter Billy Purcell flied out to Charlie Kennedy at second to end the game.

The first four Abbies to face Carson yesterday went down swinging but the fifth man, "Cuker" Pineau drove a screaming single into left field to Start off a big second inning rally. When it had ended four Abbies had crossed the plate.

Charlie Kennedy, who followed Pineau reached first on an error and Brian Lewis walked to load the sacks. Cliff Ready then came through with his first single to send Pineau home with run number one.

Donnie MacLean went down swinging for out number two but his battery-mate Forbes Kennedy cracked a single into left field to send home two more runners. When Maurice Cannon erred on Kenny MacDonald's hard hit grounded, Ready came home with the last run of the inning.

The score stayed at 4-0 until the last of the fourth when Johnny Whelan became the first Summerside runner to reach base and he got on with a walk. Coke Grady flied out to short but Paul Schurman drove a hard single into left field that went through for a three base error enabling both Whalen and himself to score.

Johnny Whelan started the Summerside rally again in the sixth inning with a double into centrefield. Coke Grady followed with a single and both runners came home when the Abbies infield threw wild in an attempt to cut down Whelan at the plate.

That was it until the eleventh. "Duck" MacLeod came close to breaking the tie in the eighth when he attempted to come home after Joe Dalton had caught Coyle's fly in shallow centre. MacLeod was tagged out by the catcher as Dalton with a rifle for an arm made a perfect peg to the plate.

MacLean struck out eight men and issued two walks in posting the win. Carson fanned eleven and gave up only one walk.

Dalton's throw to the plate and Pineau's play on Cannon's hot grounder in the sixth inning were the best fielding plays.

The third and final game will be played in Summerside Friday evening.

When young ball players report to Leo Durocher's training camp in the spring they come with one ambition in mind otherwise they don't hang around very long. "They come to play ball." Durocher was quoted as saying last spring in an interview with reporters. "They either hustle all the way or they don't stay with me." Those same words could be applied to Ev. MacNeill's Junior Abbies. They went into the Island League to play ball and they have played themselves to within one game of the Island League title.

• • • •

There were two teams out on that Summerside diamond yesterday afternoon who went there for the purpose of playing ball. They gave their best and that best was enough to make even the most critical admit it was one of the finest ball games they had seen in Island play. There were some Summerside backers who felt that Carson's no-hitter over the Air Force last week was the best game they had seen and there were some City supporters who thought that MacLean's no-hitter over M.C.A. early in June was tops. But for sheer excitement, drama and all-round fine play it would be difficult in our opinion to best yesterday's showing.

• • • •

The game was hailed as a great pitching duel between MacLean and Carson and it was all of that but it also supplied its goodly share of heavy batting. True the pitchers did not surrender many hits but they were backed up by some fine defensive play on the part of their team-mates which turned some would-be hits into routine outs.

• • •

If it were possible that there were some who doubted MacLean's pitching ability (and we doubt that there were) he provided the answer yesterday. For eleven innings MacLean handled the Curran and Briggs batters as though he had cast a spell over them. He was charged with giving up six hits, including a double. The double was actually a single but it took a bad bounce in the outfield. Two of the singles he surrendered were very scratchy and there were some who maintained that one of them was an error on the part of a teammate.

• • •

All the four runs which scored against him were unearned. To hurl eleven innings against a team like the Summerside Juniors and step off the mound without allowing an earned run is quite a feat. A glance at the Curran and Briggs batting records show that these boys are pretty husky lumber swingers with several of their men well over the .300 mark. MacLean started the game by retiring the first ten men in a row before the eleventh man drew a base on balls.

• • •

The loss was a tough one for Benny Carson. Benny pitched a good game although we have seen him in better form. Two teammates errors in the second inning did not help his chances any and this along with the three singles which he surrendered in the same frame gave the Abbies the jump they needed. From the second until the end of that game Benny kept the Abbies pretty well in check, allowing only five hits and one run.

• • •

Yesterday we wrote that Cliff Ready was something of a question mark on account of his sore hand. It didn't take Kip long to wipe out that question mark. He banged out two singes and both times "Cuker" Pineau scored on them from third base. The last time he drove Pineau across the plate with the run that won the game.

• • •

Sunday night "Cuker" Pineau spent most of the evening walking up and down Kent Street mumbling about the Abbies 11-3 defeat and vowing to revenge that defeat on Wednesday. Cuker's theory was that if the Abbies could get two runs ahead in the first two or three innings they would win the game. His theory was a good one and the little chatter-box played a big hand in putting it into effect. He obtained the Abbies first hit off Carson, scored their first and last runs and played a flawless game afield.

• • •

In speaking of yesterday's game it would be impossible not to mention the work of The Curranites centrefielder Joe Dalton. Gerard or Joe as he is known in Summerside played a terrific fielding game and his throw to the plate in the eight presented the Summerside team's chances for three innings. Dalton threw out "Duck" MacLeod after the latter attempted o score on an outfield fly.

• • •

There was considerable debate over some of the umpire's and base judges calls yesterday just as there were at Sunday's game here. As long as there are officials there will always be debates over their work. There was room for doubt on several calls regarding base runners and it is just possible that a lot of this doubt could be dispensed with if the officials would hesitate for a moment on their calls.

• • •

Yesterday's win was a great victory for the Junior Abbies coach Ev. MacNeill. Ev. has put more work into building this Junior team than most of us realize. It was not until yesterday that we learned that Ev. took the "Graveyard Shift" (1 to 8 a.m.) at the Post-Office in the summer months so that he could have the necessary time to devote to developing these younger players. The results of his efforts speak for themselves. All we can say is that the City is very fortunate in having a man like him.

The third and final game of the series is scheduled for Friday evening in Summerside. The big question as far as the Abbies are con-

O'Flaherty Not Available For Coaching Job

SYDNEY, N. S., Aug. 6—(CP)—When Saint John Beavers forfeited their franchise in the Maritime Major Hockey League recently, two Cape Breton clubs made bids for their winning coach, John (Peanuts) O'Flaherty, it was learned tonight.

But O'Flaherty, who coached Beavers to the league title, informed Sydney Millionaires and Glace Bay Miners he wasn't in the market for a coaching job.

Miners were left without a mentor when Bud Poile signed as coach of Edmonton Flyers of the Western League.

Beavers have until Aug. 31 to announce to the league executive if they wish to operate next season. Moncton Hawks, whose resignation followed Saint John's decision, are in a similar position.
