WFC Teams Play Tonight; Final Standings In Doubt

By THE CANADIAN PRESS

Western Football Conference teams play two games tonight with the final standings still in doubt only one weekend away from the end of the regular schedule.

The positions in the unusually close race could be juggled as Winnipeg Blue Bombers visit British Columbia Lions and Saskatchewan Roughriders take on the Stampeders in Calgary.

The Blue Bombers have 20 points to the Stampeders' 19 while Saskatchewan has 15 and Lions 12.

It's "next year" country in Edmonton, where the fifth-place Eskimos with 11 points talked Friday about the possibility of "selling" star quarterback Jackie Parker to touchdown club fans to increase 1963 season ticket sales.

A win over the defending champion Bombers is a must for the British Columbia club if they want to make the playoffs. They have beaten the Bombers twice this year, but even coach Dave Skrien knows that it's not often anyone beats the Bombers three times in a season.

LIONS SECLUDED

The Lions worked out late Friday and then left by bus for a suburban hotel for 24 hours of seclusion before the game.

Bill Frank, a 20-pound lineman from Colorado University signed three weeks ago, will start at left tackle for the Lions in place of Willie Taylor.

Canadian rookie Greg Findlay will replace Emery Barnes on the kickoff squad.

Winnipeg coach Bud Grant announced: "Same travelling team, same lineup, everybody healthy."

That means that for their last scheduled game against the Lions, the Bombers will have the same squad that beat Saskatchewan 17-8 last Monday.

HAVE NEW BACKFIELD

They'll have a new backfield alignment since their last meeting with the Lions, with Pepe Latourelle at right halfback replacing Roger Hagberg, who will be right fullback replacing gimpy Gerry James. Sherwyn Thorson will be at right guard with Rod Humenuik at left guard.

Roughriders are afflicted by injuries as they seek their first playoff berth in four years. As they go against the Stampeders, who are seeking a first-place finish that would give them a bye to the league finals, Saskatchewan's Clair Branch is expected to be sidelined.

The linebacker and sometime fullback suffered a charley-horse in Ottawa two weeks ago and internal bleeding in his thigh has complicated the injury. Defensive back Bob Miller is a doubtful starter and halfback Jim Copeland is out with a back injury.

The Stampeders also are hurting with tackle Don Luzzi suffering from a leg injury and guard Ernie Danjean and Phil Lohmann also hauling a doubtful starters.

Evinrudes Drop Out Of League

SUMMERSIDE — Edgar Cannon, manager of the Evinrude hockey team withdrew his club from the ISHL yesterday, on the grounds that he considered the team, with the loss of key players, too weak to put up a good fight.

He will still maintain a team called the Evinrudes and may either go into a league of lower category or play exhibition games.

Mr. Cannon made it clear that if any of his boys expressed the desire to play with the Crystals he would be glad to give them their releases.

Dr. Hillard Clark, president of the circuit gave it as his opinion that Mr. Cannon had made a wise decision considering the team had lost so many valuable players.

He hoped that the Crystals, also materially weakened this year, might pick up some Evinrude players so as to insure a league of close competition in the coming season.

He approved of the Penguin experiment of organizing a junior team and hoped that this entry might also be strong enough to provide interesting competition.

There didn't seem any question in Dr. Clark's opinion that Sandy Frizzell, manager of the Royals, with all of the Charlottetown seniors at his disposal, could muster a very strong team again this year.

If the other teams were not in the same class that would be an unfortunate thing for the league, he said.

TOP ROOKIE

Whit Tucker, 21, an Ottawa defensive halfback, has been chosen as rookie of the year in the Eastern Football Conference.

Top AFC Teams Rated Favorites

HALIFAX (CP) — The top teams in the Atlantic Football Conference are considered heavy favorites to continue unscathed during today's (Saturday) action.

Stadacona Sailors (5-0) tangle with St. Dunstan's in Halifax. The Saints, playing their first season in the league A division, have only a win and a tie in five games.

In Antigonish, N.S., the powerful St. Francis Xavier X-Men sporting a 4-0 record and an amazing 151-10 points for and against performance take on University of New Brunswick Red Bombers who are tied with SDU for seventh place in the nine-team league.

Elsewhere, winless Dalhousie Tigers are at Sackville, N.B., to play fifth place Mount Allison Mounties, and Shearwater Flyers (3-3) move to Wolfville, N.S., to play sixth place Acadia University Axemen.

Saint Mary's University Huskies are idle.

One of the major points of interest is the individual scoring race. Stad's Don Laviolette carried a 12-point lead into his club's game against St. Dunstan's. Laviolette has 48 points with the field behind him well bunched.

St. FX's Neil Weber and Mount A's Rick Black share second place with 36 points with SMU's Dick and Ray Loiselle.

Stad's Barry Glover, tied at 30 points with SMU's Roger Cloutier, may see action although he is not fully recovered from an injury.

The X-Men have three first-stringers on the limp but are not expected to be greatly weakened because of the club's strong bench. Weber, guard Paul Montdue back after missing last Sunday's game with a knee injury.

Kelly, out for two weeks with the flu remarked: "The dizziness was the worst thing about it . . It's hard enough to dodge the checks when you are healthy, but when you're dizzy you're lucky to stay out of the fifth-row seats."

With Kelly and Nevin back, coach Punch Imlach will return Eddie Litzenberger and Jim Mikol to spot duty against the Rangers.

In other NHL action tonight Chicago Black Hawks rejoin the battle with Canadiens in Montreal. Coach Toe Blake of Canadiens has expressed doubt that Gilles Tremblay will be on the ice.

HAD FIGHT

Tremblay and Reg Fleming of Chicago Black Hawks were involved in a stick-swinging incident at Chicago Tuesday night, for which referee Frank Udvari imposed match penalties, with automatic $100 fines, on each player

Fleming collected a head cut for 15 stitches and Tremblay head cuts and two blackened eyes. NHL President Clarence Campbell has called a hearing into the dispute for tonight at Montreal.

Canadiens now are in second place with eight points in the standings, two points back of Detroit. Leafs have seven points, Chicago and Boston five each and New York three.

Blake expects to be without goalie Jacques Plante, last year's Vezina Trophy winner, for at least another week. Cesare Maniago will be the Canadiens' net tonight.

Detroit, idle today, is at home to Toronto Sunday night, while Boston, who drew 3-3 with Wings Thursday, sit it out for the weekend.

Chicago meets the Rangers in New York Sunday night while Canadiens rest up.

Maple Leafs' Red Kelly Returns To Action Tonight

Argentine Boxer Still Unconscious On 26th Birthday

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Argentine boxer Alejandro Lavorante passed his 26th birthday without regaining consciousness.

He has been in a coma since he was knocked out in a heavyweight bout here Sept. 21. He passed his birthday Thursday at California Hospital, where he has undergone three brain operations.

petit and defensive back Bill Crean are expected to sit it out.

Coach Ed Hilton is optimistic that St. Dunstan's can come up with their second win, although they meet high-powered opposition.

"We feel we have been improving with each game," he said. "We had a lot of injuries that kept us under strength through our last three games but most of the boys are back now."

Hoop Tilt Goes Tonight

The City Basketball League 'Golden Ball' tourney gets underway at the YMCA at 7 o'clock with the Phalanx playing host to SDU.

Red Heads Thrill Fans With Play

All American Red Heads, a group of pretty lassies with a great knack of handling a basketball, treated hoop fans to some exciting play at PWC auditorium last night where they played and defeated PWC Welshmen by a score of 62-40.

Along with some exciting action the fans that packed the auditorium were treated to some fancy tricks at halftime such as, trick shots, juggling, dribbling, etc.

The Red Heads were led by Justine 'Tex' Glover, a 6 foot guard who proved to be the star of the show. Tex spearheaded almost every offensive play for the visiting girls and kept fans laughing throughout the game with her antics. The smooth ball handler has been with the troupe for five years.

Pat Overman and Danna Granger also provided some fancy ball handling and were also the top point-getters with twenty points each. Pat, who has been with the team for three years and whose husband, Benny Overman, is coach and business manager of the team, played a real solid game at guard.

The Red Heads leave for Cornwallis, N.S. early this morning where they play a team from Acadia University tonight.

Liston Returns To Chicago Fri.

CHICAGO (AP) — Heavyweight boxing champion Sonny Liston returned to Chicago Friday for the first time since he dethroned Floyd Patterson Sept. 25 and said:

1. He didn't need a manager (although George Katz of Philadelphia is his manager of record).

2. He's ready to give Patterson his entitled rematch any time, any place.

3. He may move his home from Philadelphia, "where I'm still treated like a bum," to Chicago or Detroit.

Liston made these statements at a press conference attended by his wife, Geraldine, and several aides—including two state's attorney staff detectives who were his bodyguards before the Patterson fight.
