

The Sun

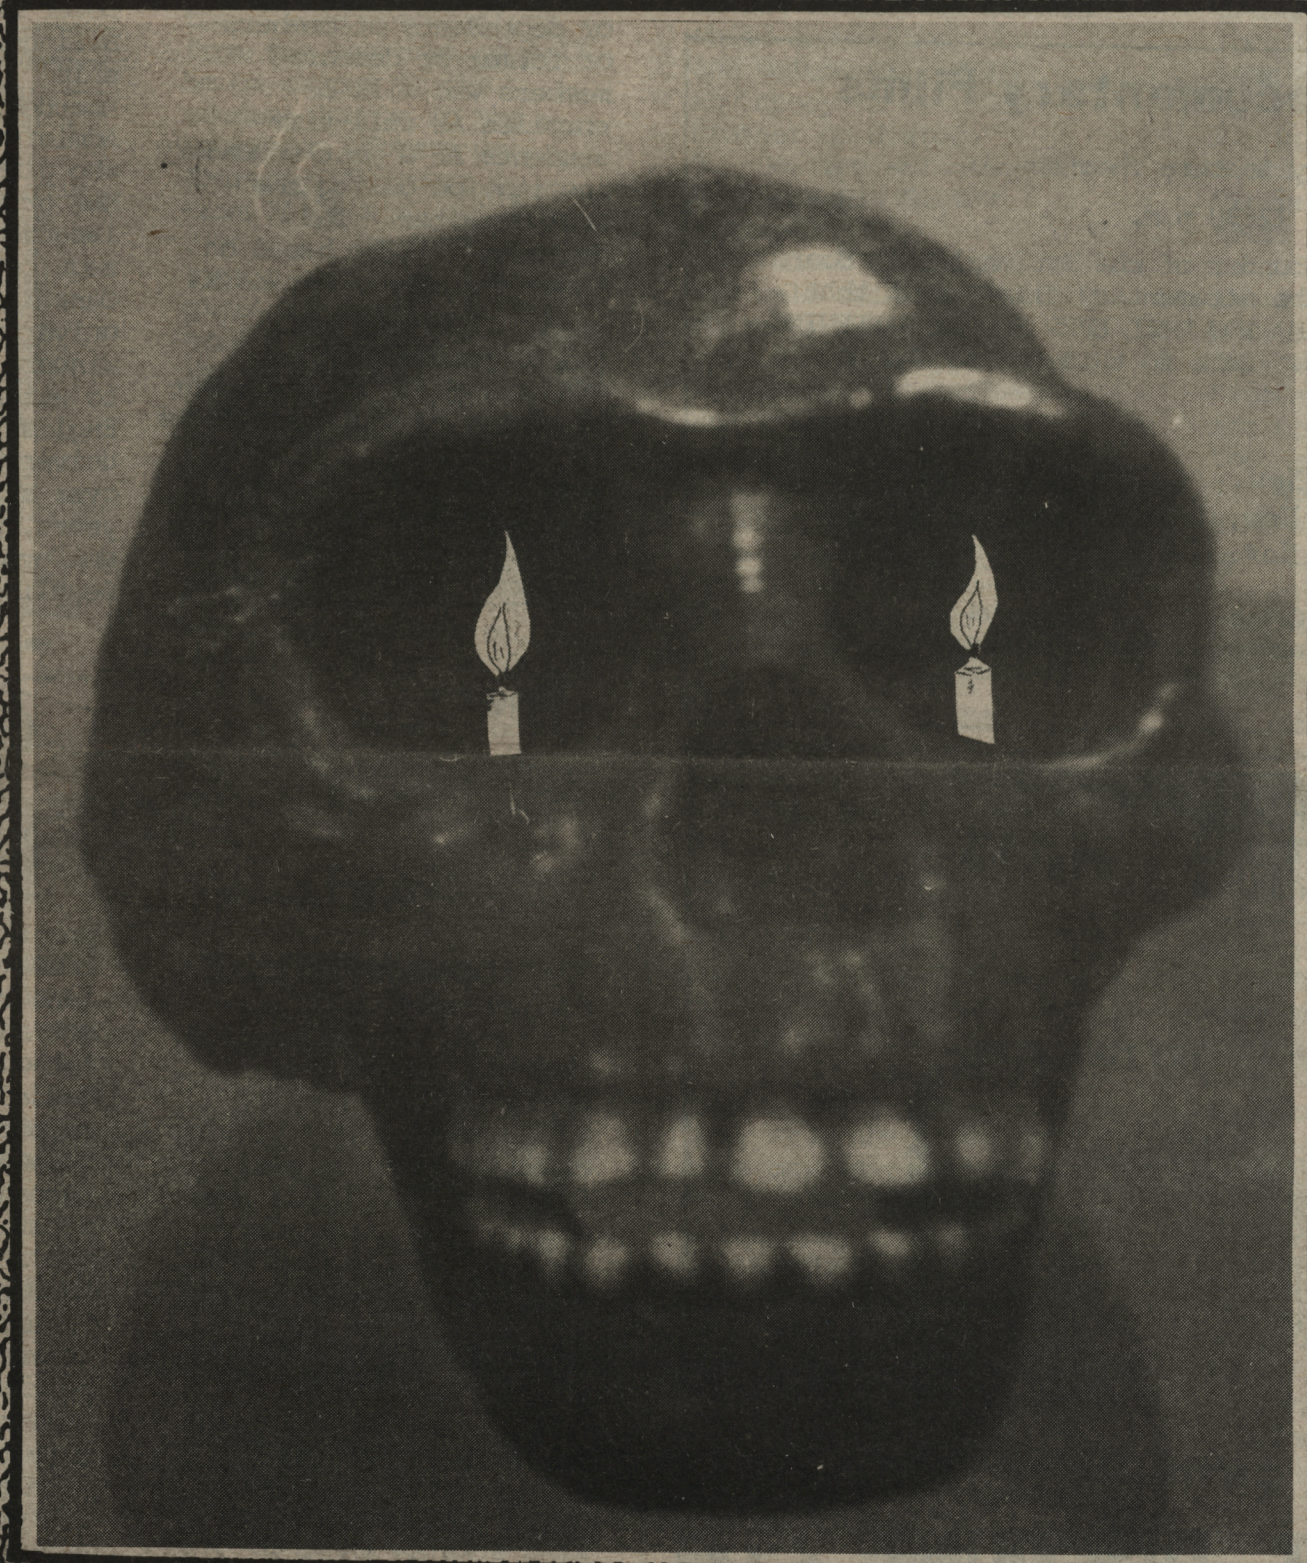

VOLUME 13

ISSUE 7

Oct 29 1981

8 PAGES

Spells & Incantations

The church bells toll slowly
as winds brush cold fingers
through fallen leaves.

Trees comb the sky
as clouds stalk the moon
into submission - darkness.

Mortals beware,
the spirits prepare
and cauldrons froth
in anticipation...
of your undoing.