VARIETIES.

LOUIS NAPOLEON AND THE SULTAN.

The past history of the family of Louis Napoleon and the Sultan of Turkey is full of interesting and marvellous incidents, some of which are, probably, not generally known to our readers.

Those two monarchs, now so cordially united in the struggle to maintain the integrity of the Ottoman empire, are both grandsons of America ladies. Those ladies were born and raised in the same neighbourhood, on the island of Martinique, one of the West Indies. They were of French origin, and companions and intimate friends in childhood and youth. They were Josephine de Tascher and Miss S——.

The history of Josephine is generally known. She went to France, and was married to M. de Beauharnais, by whom she had one son, Eugene, and a daughter, Hortense. Some time after the death of Beauharnais, Josephine was married to Napoleon Bonaparte, and became Empress of France. Her daughter, Hortense, was married to Joseph Bonaparte, then a King of Holland, and the present Emperor of France is her son by that marriage.

Miss S——quitted the island of Martinique some time before the vessel that carried her here. But to France was attacked and taken by the Algerine Corsairs, and the crew and passengers were made prisoners. But this Corsair ship was in turn attacked by Tunis pirates, and Miss S——was carried by them to Constantinople, and offered for sale as a slave. Her extraordinary beauty and accomplishments found her a purchaser in the Sultan himself, and she soon became the chief lady of the Seraglio and Sultaness of Turkey. Mahmoud II. was the husband of this Corsair's vas her son, and the present Sultan, Abdul Medjid, is the son of Mahmoud.

Thus the two sovereigns who now occupy so large a space in the world's eye, are grandsons of two American Creole girls, who were playmates in their youth, and were as remarkable for their varied and singular fortunes.

Both these women, in the height of their power, remembered all the friends of their youth, and provided for their welfare. Many of the munificently for their relatives of this Sultaness left the Island of Martinique and settled at Constantinople, where their descendants still reside, and enjoy the favour of the Sultan.

The Sultaness died in 1811, the Empress Josephine in 1814, and their grandsons now rule over wide and powerful empires, and are entering, as friends and allies, upon one of the most momentous struggles in which European history has ever involved.—Pittsburgh Post.

EXTENT OF RUSSIA.—The most unbroken empire existed; occupying vast regions of Europe and Asia, and nearly one-sixth of the habitable globe. It is forty-two times the size of France, and a hundred and thirty-eight times that of England.

WHITE STRAW PAPER.—The Philadelphia "Dollar Newspaper, is printed on paper made from straw, by Meller's process. This paper is really excellent and beautiful, says the Scientific American. It is made from rags, but is firm and hard per made from straw is as white as any paper printed in the country. We are happy thus to herald the complete success of white paper made from straw.

STATISTICS OF DANCING.—An ingenious French arithmetician has calculated that the space which a young Parisian belle, who is fond of the salutary exercise of dancing, traverses in the course of her evening's amusements in the saloons of Paris, amounts in the course of one dancing season, to four hundred and thirty-four miles and a half. He has also calculated that a French lady, fond of dancing, performing the functions of a tee-totum waltz in one night, will spin round in a circle with the wheels of a steam-boat revolve while running the distance between Devor and Calais!

Mrs. Partington, speaking of the provisions of the constitution, said, "For my part I should be glad to see 'em. Heaven and all of us knows provisions is scarce enough, and if they could to so good a use I'd am turn the constitution that will have a tendency to ease the necessities of life. am glad of it. Anything at the moment, aderness to cheapen the shouldn't give her like came running in a "tig wicket."

LIVELINESS.—Few things are more liable to be abused in society—especially by young ladies—than the gift of liveliness. No doubt it gives an ins present admiration while they contin ne young and pretty—but it leads to n o esteem—produces affection if it be ca arried beyond the bounds of graceful good h umor. She, for instance who is distinguished for the odd freedom of her remarks—whose laugh is loudest—whose mot is the most piquant—who gathers a crowd o f laughers round her, of whom quiet peo ple are afraid—this is a sort of person wh o may be inoffensive and good natured, but no inconsiderable acquisition at part ies of which the general approbrium is d ullness—but this is not the sort of perso n likely to become the honored mistress of a respectable house.

WANTED TO KNOW.—The velocity of a "running account."

A child in Congress-Street was cured by the Soothing Syrup of infantile Dysentery or Diarrhœa after being given over by the attending Physician. Mr. Blackman, of Eddington says, it has never failed to cure Dysentery or Diarrhœa in children whenever used in the village. Lots of it is sold.

One parent informs me,his child has suffered to an alarming extent, with Worms, Vomiting or Wind Cholic. Lately she has been used the Soothing Syrup, and it always effects a speedy cure.

Hundreds of like instances might be enumerated.

We cheerfully comply with the request of a friend to insert the following letter which we are assured is from a lady of the first respectability, residing in Lowell, Mass., knowing that a vast amount of suffering may be prevented, and many valuable lives saved, by calling the attention of mothers to the valuable prescription of an old and experienced nurse:

Dear Sir:—I am happy to be able to certify to the efficiency of Mr. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, and to the truth of all that is represented to accomplish. Having a little boy suffering greatly from teething, who could not rest, and at night by his cries would disturb the whole family, I was led to purchase a bottle of Soothing Syrup, in order to test the remedy. —and when given to the boy according to the directions, in less than half an hour after he took it, he soon went to sleep, and all pain and nervousness disappeared. We have had no trouble with him since; and the little fellow will pass through with comfort the excruciating process of teething, by the sole aid of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup. Every mother who regards the health and life of her children, should possess it.

NEUROLOGY, or SCIATIC RHEUMATISM CURED.

It gave me immediate relief, and I do not hesitate to say, that it is the best article I ever used. I cheerfully recommend it to all who may be afflicted with similar complaints.

Hunter's Balsam. It is not often that we can say anything favorable of patent medicines, on the testimony of others, but when we have ourselves tested, who have used and tested their merits. But in regard to Hunter's Balsam, put up by our fellow citizen, Jeremiah Curtis, Esq. we have the testimony of many of our most substantial citizens, all speaking in the most unanimous in its praise. The testimony of one individual with whom the public are acquainted, carries with it more weight than a dozen certificates from strangers, whose faces we never saw, and whose certificates, for aught we know, may have been procured for the occasion. INDIAN DISPEPSIA PILLS,

For cure of Costiveness, Acidity of the Stomach, Bilious Habits, Headache, Nausea, Heart Burning, Pain in the Side, Lung and Liver Complaints.

DYSPEPSIA AND IDIGESTION.

With Costiveness, Acidity of the Stomach, Heart Burning, Bilious Complaints,—generally Headache, Pain in the side, Loss of Appetite, and general Debility,—can be remedied, removed, and entirely cured, by the use of the Indian Dispepsia Pills. These Pills have been prepared with the most astonishing success by hundreds of cases of the above complaints, and are an invaluable remedy, in an especial manner, for Dyspepsia, or Indigestion, and when taken Collectively, operating mostly upon the blood, cleansing and purifying the same, and causing the digestive organs to perform their appropriate duties, with regularity.

COSTIVENESS.

Habitual Costiveness is, if not removed in time, a cause of more than half of the disorders and pains to which humanity is subject. The medicines too generally had recourse to are more hurtful than useful, as they weaken the peristaltic action of the bowels, and thus aggravate instead of removing the complaint.

The, in all Bilious Diseases, attended with Pain in the Side and Right Shoulder Blade, with a dull, sallow countenance. In all Diarrhœas,, Ague and Fever, Biliousness and sick headache, they are an invaluable Remedy.

They will be found the best Family Physic in the world, purifying the blood, restoring the appetite, and leaving the stomach and bowels in a healthy state. Price 25 cents per box.

For purifying the Blood, we do not believe these ills have their equal in the world.

DR. HOOFLAND'S CELEBRATED BITTERS,

Prepared by DR. C. M. JACKSON, No. 120 Arch street, Philadelphia.

Their power over the above diseases is not excelled, if equalled, by any other preparation in the United States, as the cures attest, in many cases after skilful physicians had failed.

These Bitters are worthy the attention of invalids. Possessing great virtues in the rectification of diseases of the Liver and lesser glands, exercising the most searching powers in weakness and affections of the digestive organs, they are, withal, safe, certain and pleasant.

Read and be Convinced.

"The Philadelphia Saturday Gazette," says of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters.

"It is seldom that we recommend what are termed Patent Medicines, to the confidence and patronage of our readers; and therefore when we recommend Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, we wish it to be distinctly understood that we are not speaking of the nostrums of the day, that are noised about for a brief period and then forgotten after they have done their guilty race of mischief, but of a medicine long established, universally prized, and which has met the hearty approval of the faculty itself."

"Scott's Weekly," said, Aug. 25—

"Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, manufactured by Dr. Jackson, are now recommended by some of the most prominent members of the faculty as an article of undoubted merit in cases of weakness. Persons of debilitated constitutions will find these Bitters advantageous to their health, as we know from experience the salutary effect they have upon a weak system."

MORE EVIDENCE.

J. G. Moore, Esq., of the Daily News said, October 3*rd* 1853.

"DR. HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.—We are trying this renowned medicine for a stubborn disease of the bowels, and can with truth testify to its efficacy. We have taken the contents of two bottles, and we have derived more benefit from the experiment than we derived previously from years of allopathic treatment at the hands of our first physicians."

Hon. C. D. Hilbline, Mayor of the City of Camden, N. J., says:

"HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.—We have seen many flattering notices of this medicine, and the source from which they came induced us to make inquiry respecting it. Such inquiry we have been persuaded to use it, and must say we found it specific in its action upon diseases of the liver and digestive organ, and the powerful influence it exerts upon nervous debility is really surprising. It calms and strengthens the nerves, bringing them into a state of repose, making sleep refreshing.

If this medicine was more generally used, we are satisfied there would be less sickness, as from the stomach, liver and nervous system, the great majority of real and imaginary diseases emanate. Have them in a healthy condition and you can bid defiance to epidemics generally. This extraordinary medicine we would advise our friends who are at all debilitated, to give a trial—we will recommend them. It should, in fact, be in every family. No other medicine can produce evidences of the same merit."

In this money-grubbing Age, it is rare to find a man place his usefulness to the public, before his interest. During a late visit to the 'City of Spindles,' we were presented by a professional friend, to the celebrated Chemist, Dr. Ayer, whose name is now or perhaps, more familiar than any other, at the bedside of sickness, in this country. Knowing the unprecedent power he wields in his laboratory, and the immense sale of them, we had expected to find him a millionare, and rolling in wealth. But no, we found him in his laboratory, busy with his labourers, among his crucibles, alembics, and retorts—giving his thes personal care to the compounds, on the virtues of which, thousands hang for health. We learned, that notwithstanding the immense sales, and the prompt returns in cash, the Doctor is not rich. The reason assigned is, that the material is costly, and he persists in making the best medicine possible, that the sett profit is small.—American Farmer, Phil.

The following letter from the celebrated Dr. JAMES C. AYER, gives the honest side of the Nostrum question. Since the Public will use these remedies we wish for the sake of suffering humanity there were none of them like the Cherry Pectoral and Cathartic pills, which requires no secrecy to make them go down.

Lowell, 26th April, 1854.

Messrs —— & Co.,
New York City,

GENTLEMEN:—I send you the 23d inst., asking me to join in a combination to put down the Ohio Nostrum Bill, comes duly to hand. I cannot accede to your request for the following reasons :

The law requiring that the composition shall be published; of every medicine sold in the State, cannot work to the injury of anybody who deserves protection. I have published the recipe of my medicines for fifteen years, and believe this to be the honest way of making their virtues known to the community. The Medical Profession, from their discoveries to the world as soon as made, for the benefit of all mankind. Why should we not? The Law which you first will destroy your business, can injure only those who falsely pretend to discoveries and secrets which they have not. It will expose the emptiness of such pretensions, and the public will turn aside from all preparations as are found to be worthless when their composition is known. If medicines have real worth, they will be only the better appreciated and the better patronized by having their composition open to the Public, that all may judge for themselves. If they have not real merit, it is due in common justice, to the suffering sick, to the public health and to the public morality, that the people should know them to avoid them.

Yours Respectfully,
JAMES C. AYER.

AYER'S PILLS,

A NEW and singularly successful remedy for the Cure of all Bilious diseases—Costiveness, Indigestion, Jaundice, Dropsy, Rheumatism, Fevers, Loss of Appetite, Dysentery, Irritability, Inflammations, Headache, Pains in the Breast, Side, Back, and Limbs, Female complaints, &c. &c. Indeed, very few are the diseases in which a Purgative Medicine is not more or less required, and much sickness and suffering would be prevented by a timely use of effectual Cathartic were more freely used. No person can take these Pills according to bulk of body prevails; besides it soon generates serious and often fatal diseases, which might have been avoided by the timely and judicious use of a good Purgative. This is alike true of Colds, Feverish symptoms, and Bilious derangements. They all tend to become or produce the deep seated and formidable diseases which load the bowels all over the land. Hence a reliable Family physic is of the first importance to the public health, and this Pill has been perfected with consummate skill to meet that demand. An extensive trial of its virtues by Physicians, Professors, and Patients, has shown results surpassing anything hitherto known of any medicine. Cures have been effected beyond belief, were they not substantiated by persons of such exalted position and character as to forbid the suspicion of untruth.

Among the eminent gentlemen to whom AYER are allowed to refer for these facts, are

PROF. VALENTINE MOTT, the distinguished Surgeon of New York City.

DOCT. A. A. HAYES, Practical Chemist, of the Port of Boston, and Geologist for the State of Massachusetts.

ISA L. MOORE, M. D., an eminent Surgeon and Physician of the City of Lowell, who has long used them in his extensive practice.

H. C. SOUTHWICK, Esq., one of the first merchants in New York City.

C. A. DAVIS, M. D., Sup't and Surgeon of the United States Marine Hospital, at Chelsea, Mass.

Did space permit, we could give many hundred such names, from all parts where the Pills have been used, but the above are deemed sufficient from the certificates of these eminent public men is shown their effects upon trial.

These Pills, the result of long investigation and study, are offered to the public as the best and most concentrated form in which the present state of medical science can afford. They are compounded not of the drugs themselves, but of the medicinal virtues only of Vegetable substances, attracted by chemical process, in a state of purity and combined together in such a manner as to insure the best results. This system of composition for medicines has been found in the Cherry Pectoral and Pills both, to produce a more efficient remedy than had hitherto been obtained by any process. The reason is perfectly obvious. In the usual way of preparing compositions, every medicine is burdened with more or less of acrimonious and injurious qualities; by this, each individual virtue of the whole is deadened in the curative effect is present. All the inert and obnoxious qualities in each substance employed are left behind, the curative virtues only retained. Hence it is self-evident the effect should prove as they have proved more powerful, and the Pills be by far the most powerful antidote to disease than any other medicine known to the world.

As it is but reasonable to expect that my medicine should be taken under the counsel of an attending Physician, and as such we could not properly judge of a remedy without knowing its composition, I have supplied the accurate Formula by which both my Pectoral and Pills are made to the whole body of Practitioners in the United States and British America, FREE. If however there should be any one who has not received them, they will be promptly forwarded by mail to his address.

Of all the Patent Medicines that are offered, how few would be taken if their composition was known! Their life consists in their mystery. I have no mysteries.

The composition of my preparations is laid open to all men, and their virtues be compared to judge on the subject, freely acknowledge their convictions of their intrinsic worths. The Cherry Pectoral was pronounced by scientific men to be a wonderful medicine before its effects were known. Many eminent Physicians have declared the same thing of my Pills, and even more confidently, and are willing to employ them in their practice to the body of Practitioners in the United States and British America. If however there should be any one who has not received them, they will be promptly forwarded by mail to his address.
