TABOO

NOV. 1

$2.50

ROCK'N AT ITS BEST

The band is along the lines of The Tubes or Alice Cooper with heavier musical stylings. With selections of New Wave and early '70s hard rock, Taboo is out to make an impact. Billed as a sex-rock act, their performances are going to turn more than a few heads.

Taboo is providing local audiences with an exciting approach to rock music. Their show is a takeoff on Punk music. Lynn Fitzgerald, director of Commotion Promotion, says "Taboo is to punk what soap is to Another World."

No doubt Taboo is going to make a strong impression. Personal taste will decide whether the impression is good or bad.
