

Sympathy

On Saturday, September 7, the University community suffered a great loss. John O'Brien, who was well-known to many of us passed away at the age of 30.

John was highly regarded as a friendly, articulate, intelligent, and caring person. He possessed the unique quality of being able to make friends wherever he went.

We who knew John would like to express our deepest sympathy to John's brother Kevin, a student at U.P.E.I., and to all his family and friends.

Are committees your thing?

Would you like to know more about the way rules are made at UPEI?

Are you just naturally curious?

If the answer to any of these questions was "You bet!", you are ripe for our purpose.

LETTERS ...

Students of U.P.E.I.

My name is Reverend Leslie Jay, and I have been appointed the new Protestant Chaplain at U.P.E.I. and Holland College.

I have recently returned to P.E.I. after a twenty-year absence, so I do not yet know many students on either campus: I am also new to the role of University Chaplain. I would, therefore, welcome any contact from you, or suggestions that you might have in this capacity.

Penpal

Hello!

I want to correspond with a student in your school:

Name: Naoko Suyama
 Hobbies: Gymnastics, nature walks.

I have been interested in the works of L.M. Montgomery. Since I read Anne of Green Gables, it has been my dream to go to the Island of Prince Edward.

Address: See editor.

My present timetable (it's not carved in stone, so therefore open to negotiation) calls for me to be at the Chaplaincy Centre, U.P.E.I., Monday and Tuesday for full days, and on Thursday mornings.

I look forward to meeting many of you in the days ahead. Please drop into the Chaplaincy Centre to meet Sister Alma MacLellan or myself; we would appreciate the contact.

The Roman Catholic Mass is to be celebrated at 4:15 p.m., Monday through Friday, and on Sundays at 6:30 p.m. I would welcome input from any students interested in a weekly Protestant Worship Service Discussion group. Please suggest a day and a time that would suit you and contact me at the Centre of phone 566-0574, or drop this tab into the shoe box inside the chapel door.

Thank You,
 Rev. Leslie Jay

EXPERIENCE BENEFICIAL

The staff of the Netted Gem still welcomes anyone who wishes to become a member. We would be happy to have even more reporters, layout people, photographers, etc., working towards the production of the newspaper each week.

Don't forget that you can benefit by joining us, because you will have valuable experience to put on job applications, graduate applications, or just to add to your career profile.

Think seriously about it. Meetings are held every Monday at 6:30 p.m., in the Netted Gem office on the fourth floor, Main Building. We hope to see you then.
