LACROSSE.—There is some talk of forming a lacrosse association for the Maritime Provinces. Mr. H. H. Allingham, of St. John, one of the moving spirits, will be pleased to open up a correspondence on the subject with any one interested. He understands from Montreal advices that the coming year promises to be the greatest in the history of the game, and he thinks it would be well to extend the "boom" in this direction.

PROGRESS.—It is very important in this age of material progress that a remedy be pleasing to the taste and to the eye, easily taken, acceptable to the stomach and healthy in its nature and effects. Possessing these qualities, Syrup of Figs is the one perfect laxative and most gentle diuretic known. mar30 1m

THE MAILED.—The boats left Cape Tormentine at 10 15 a. m., to-day. [The mail will be due in this city at 4 30.]

The mails will be transferred from the Capes to the Stanley on Friday. The mails will be delivered to the Stanley at 6.45 each morning, and will be closed at the Post Office half an hour earlier. The Stanley is expected to make daily return trips and the mail will be due here early each evening.

IN NEW QUARTERS.—Messrs. W. A. Weeks & Co., now occupy their new premises on Queen Street, where they will be pleased to see their old customers and as many new ones as may feel disposed to call. They have made every arrangement for doing a large trade. The three floors and basement of their establishment are well filled with new and elegant goods, and additions are being made daily. The building is large and well-lighted, and every facility is afforded for the displaying of their large stock. The ground floor will be devoted solely to the retail trade, and the two upper floors will be reserved for their wholesale business, which is very large. THE EXAMINER congratulates Messrs Weeks & Co., upon their past success in business, and wishes them continued prosperity.

HOTEL IMPROVEMENTS.—The enterprising proprietor of the Hotel Davies has this spring made some important alterations and improvements in that well-known and popular establishment. The main hall has been enlarged by the removal of the office, which is now located alongside the gentlemen's parlor. The office is beautifully finished in ash and cherry. The gentlemen's parlor and the smoking room have also been re-fitted and improved, and a new floor of Island birch has been put down in the smoking room, which now fronts on Water Street. The ladies' parlor has been removed from the first floor to more convenient quarters on the ground floor, and improvements have also been made in the dining room. These alterations and improvements will we feel sure be duly appreciated by patrons of the hotel, which, by the way, is one of the best in the Maritime Provinces and is largely patronized. The woodwork was done by Lowe Bros., and the painting and tinting by Taylor & Stentford.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

Reciprocity and the Bond-Blaine Treaty.

Colonel Amyot Denounces the Grits and Reveals their True Inwardness.

Senator Power Endorses Action of the Government.

The Opposition Obfuscated.

OTTAWA, March 12. In the House of Commons, Mr. Mills resumed the debate on the Budget, speaking three hours. In reply Sir John Thompson made a splendid speech in which he referred to the reciprocity negotiations between Canada and the States. As to who took the initiative in regard to the negotiations was, he said, of little consequence and might be a mere matter of opinion. But he held still that the Government was right in saying that the initiative came from the United States government. He then commenced at the time of negotiation of the Bond-Blaine Treaty with Newfoundland, when Canada asked to be included, and gave a history of the whole negotiations downward.

Mr. Davies followed. He denied that the proposed treaty between Newfoundland and the States discriminated against Canada. He denounced the Government for not dismissing six hundred employes on the Intercolonial Railway as it was suggested they would do at one time.

Mr. Watson concluded the debate. In the Senate the Newfoundland question was discussed. Senator Howland in the course of a vigorous speech, detailed the circumstances which had led up to the present condition of affairs and commended the Government for having done their duty in the premises.

Senator Power (Grit) also commended the Government for its action in respect to the Bond Treaty, and said that he believed that the people of Newfoundland would eventually recognize that Canada had rendered them a service.

In the House of Commons yesterday, Col. Amyot denounced the policy of the Grits and claimed that the country could be better governed by the Conservatives. He praised Mr. Laurier, but the rest of the party were, he said, unfit to run the country. The Liberals looked cohesion. They had no policy, no definite aims, and were wholly incapable of governing the country.
