RING, HAPPY CHRISTMAS BELLS.

This is the day that Christ was born! Hark to the music sweet and wild, That wakens glad hearts and forlorn To greet the blessed Child!

Oh silver bells that ring so clear All the wintry morning gray, Rouse up the sleepy world to hear That Christ was born to-day.

Ring till the children start from sleep, Sweet with dreams of joy to be, And clap their little hands and leap, And shout aloud in glee!

Ring till the sorrowful ones of earth— Whose lives are spent in toil and tears, That leave, alas! no place for mirth In all the dreary years—

Shall hear the tender words he said: "Come into Me all ye that mourn!" And gather strength anew to tread The path his feet have worn.

Ring loud, ring sweet, O Christmas bells, And tune each walking soul to prayer, The while your joyful psalm swells Upon the wintry air.

Through misty dawn and sunshine clear, Ring till the callous hearts of men, Stirred with the thought of Christ so near, Grows warm and soft again.

Ring till the tender impulse turns To pitying thought, to generous deed; Ring till the eager spirit burns To succor all that need.

And while ye ring, with heart and voice, Glory to God let all men say, And every living soul rejoice That Christ was born to-day.

Upon the return of some German troops from China, a few days ago, the Emperor William addressed them thus: "With anxious forebodings and heavy heart I witnessed your departure from the fatherland. The efforts which awaited you could be foreseen. For what you have effected I offer you my thanks in the name of the entire fatherland. You have under all circumstances upheld your oath to the flag. I am firmly convinced that each has done his duty in the hour of need. You have not yet quivered; no hand has trembled. Thus were the victories gained. None among you can know with how great joy the news was received of your victories in which the army and navy together were concerned. Yes, the great emperor king, by whose statue you have marched today, now looks down upon you. The help of God, which has hitherto been with us, will continue on our hand also in the future." His majesty also referred to the comrades still in the far east.

As a Food For the Skin

Powders may cover up the disfiguring eruptions, but can never cure them, and are positively injurious, because they clog up the pores of the skin. Dr. Chase's Ointment is a food for the skin. It is readily absorbed, and thoroughly cures each and every skin disease, making the skin smooth, soft and clear. No woman's toilet is complete without Dr. Chase's Ointment, for, besides being the most perfect skin beautifier obtainable, it can be used in a score of different ways. It absolutely cures eczema, salt rheum and the itching to which women are especially subject.

When the feet are sore and chafed with walking an application of Dr. Chase's Ointment takes out the smarting and allays the inflammation in a surprisingly short time. Then, for burns, scalds and every sort of chafing, irritation or eruption of the skin, Dr. Chase's Ointment affords a safe and certain cure. It has come to be indispensable in scores of thousands of homes; 50 cents a box, at all dealers' or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.
