

BABY'S OWN SOAP is made particularly for little folks. It is the purest soap in the world. Really and truly the purest. It looks good; smells good; IS good; and does good to the pink and tender skin of infants. Thousands of men and women use BABY'S OWN SOAP—because they like it—but for Babies it is indispensable. 76 THE ALBERT TOILET SOAP CO., MONTREAL. Unprincipled makers are offering an inferior soap the same in color and shape as BABY'S OWN. BEWARE!

CHARLOTTE TOWN Business College Writing Academy

Let these clear light of practice illuminate the dark places of Theory. THOROUGHLY Progressive Practical Institution, in which young men and women are not only taught. Book keeping (small its applications to commerce) both in single and double entry, but are trained how to do; business, by actual business transactions. The students act as buyers, sellers, traders, bankers, book-keepers and accountants, in actual business operations, and the currency issued by the College Bank and the mds. issued from the Emporium, are used in bona fide business transactions, just the same as in mercantile and banking houses. Book-keeping in itself may be learned at home, but a knowledge of how to transact business, cannot be thus acquired. That our course system of training is eminently practical write for testimonials from business men, and from students who are now holding lucrative and responsible positions. SUBJECTS: Book-keeping by single and double entry (theoretical and practical) Actual Business Practice, Business Penmanship, Business Correspondence, Commercial Arithmetic, Commercial Law, Railroading, Steamboating, Banking, (actual practice in the College Bank) Typewriting, Shorthand and Navigation. FACULTY: L. ITEMS OF INTEREST.
It is the Chinese custom to inaugurate business ventures with a display of fireworks.
There are houses still standing in Nuremberg, Bavaria, that were built in 1080.
A one legged knife grinder in Philadelphia has taught a Newfoundland dog to turn his grindstone.
Berlin has a service of dinner carts which call at the homes of the working-men and collect lunches to convey to the men at the factories.
A newly discovered Spanish stone has proved so well adapted to lithographic work that a large company has been formed, which threatens to overthrow the Bavarian monopoly in lithographic stones.
The guardians of the poorhouse in Oldham, England, recently discontinued the daily allowance of half a pint of beer to each inmate, whereupon most of them went on strike, leaving the institution.
Brussels sprouts came from Belgium; beets are natives to the southeast coast of Europe; sage comes from south Europe, and rhubarb from China and Tartary. The arrowroot is from South America.
Cucumbers are native to the East Indies and are grown in Cashmere, China and Persia. They were much esteemed by the ancients and are common in Egypt, where a drink is prepared from them when they are ripe.
In ancient times there was a superstition that if the Christmas decorations in churches were not cleared away before Candlemas, Feb. 2, there would be a death that year in the family occupying the pew in which the leaf or berry remained.
A well known Parisian swell, failing to answer a summons to appear in court at 10 a. m., an officer went to look him up. His excuse for not appearing was that his entire wardrobe consisted of 16 sets of pyjamas and a dozen dress suits. He had no use for clothing beyond evening dress and the pyjamas.

PITH AND POINT.
Every man thinks he is strictly first class.
Men hate to wait; it is more disagreeable to men than to women.
Worthless men get along too well in this country; they encourage others.
A woman never sees a list of advertised letters without looking for her name.
The smaller the town, the more fear- less its amateur actors in tackling difficult plays.
A meal never tastes right if prepared by a woman whose hair is stringing around her face.
It requires as much time to get away from a persistent agent as it does to say goodby to an affectionate woman.
There is probably less sincerity manifested at an amateur musicale than upon any other social occasion known in the civilized world.—Aitchison Globe.

SOME IFS.
If a man has nothing to say, he has a splendid opportunity not to talk.
If love is weakness, it magages to make a pretty strong bluff at times.
If there is such a thing as a spoiled child, it always belongs to a neighbor.
If there is no water on the moon, it has a good excuse for getting full occasionally.—Chicago News.

FRILLS OF FASHION.
The new ribbons are in plaids and stripes in the prettiest colors imaginable.
Black poppies, roses and violets are the prevailing blossoms in the new spring hats.
White velvet, as well as white breitschwanz, is used for the crown of the fur trimmed toque.
The latest ties for women are the sailor knots of silk with broad ends, sometimes trimmed with tiny plaited frills.
A new and rather extraordinary skirt model has a tunic back and front of an entirely different material from the underskirt.
Black crepe de chine gowns are very much worn and very prettily trimmed with narrow ruffles of the same, edged with black guipure or chantilly lace.
The latest novelty in feather boas has six ends, three on each side, and fastens at the neck with a jeweled ornament, which in general is set with rhinestones.
Wylbowye is the name of a new corset which is recommended for stout women. An extra piece laces over the hips in such an effectual manner that the figure is very much improved.
If you would wear a white veil, it must be of the daintiest, most cobwebby lace, with diamond shaped dots and two or three black spots to give the effect of court plaster. This is termed the Castellane veil.
Roman striped sashes with deep knotted sewing silk fringe on the ends are revived again in all the gorgeous colors, and the latest necktie is of Roman ribbon, tied in a four-in-hand knot with tiny fringe trimmed ends.
Freshen your half worn chiffon waist by adding a black velvet bolero made with small revers covered with white silk and network of jet. Colored velvets are also pretty for this purpose if the bodice is of white or cream.
Blue ostrich feathers sprinkled with silver are a pretty decoration for the hair with evening dress. Other novelties are the Louis Seize bows of velvet ribbon combined with aigrets. Twists of chiffon and gold gauze ribbon are also worn.—New York Sun.

THE ONLY HOPE!
For Victims of Bright's Disease is Dodd's Kidney Pills.
Not a day passes on which the newspapers do not record the death of one or more persons from Bright's Disease. Already its victims number hundreds of thousands. Day by day the awful total grows larger. No class is safe from this destroyer. War and intemperance, with all their miseries and fatalities, are not responsible for as many deaths as have been caused by Bright's Disease. Yet, there is a way of resisting it; of drawing its poisoned fangs, and making it as harmless as a summer breeze. That great medicine, Dodd's Kidney Pills, has cured thousands of the worst cases. It never fails to cure, hopeless as the case may seem. Would you safely shield your loved ones from the fatal grip of this curse of mankind—Bright's Disease? A Tough Route.
"Somewhere in the south," says Congressman Sulloway, "a bright colored boy appeared before the civil service commission to be examined for the position of letter carrier. 'How far is it from the earth to the moon?' was the first question asked by those who were to determine the young man's fitness for the place he sought. 'How far am I from the ear to de moon?' echoed the applicant. 'My Lawd, boss, if you's gwine to put me on dat route I don't want de job.' With that the young man grabbed his hat and left as though he were chased."
In the Japanese match factories the boxes and labels are made by little girls, who are wondrously dexterous in the work. These little experts get from 1 to 5 cents for 12 hours' work.
The largest gasometer in the world is at East Greenwich. When full, it contains 12,000,000 cubic feet of gas. It weighs 2,200 tons, is 180 feet high, 300 feet in diameter, requires 1,200 tons of coal to fill it with gas and cost nearly $40,000.
Gunpowder was invented by Roger Bacon, an Englishman who lived in the thirteenth century, but Germany claims the merit for several who lived about 30 years after Bacon's decease.

What is known and Sold as Ready-Made Clothing
Is clothing cut out by machinery, put together by machinery, and with the aid of starving female labor. Such a garment stamps the wearer on sight as dressed in slops. He not only looks it but as a consequence feels it. Men are learning that they cannot afford to be ill-dressed. Slops have had their day.
Shorey's Ready-to-Wear Clothing expresses exactly what the name would imply
QUITE READY-TO-WEAR.
Made by tailors, designed by an artist, sewn with the best linen and silk, cut to fit the form of man be he tall, short, stout, or thin. Any man not a positive malformation can be fitted by Shorey's Ready-to-wear Clothing.
By fitted we mean dressed so that he looks a Gentleman, and possesses that feeling of comfort and air of ease that always marks the well dressed man.
See that Shorey's Guarantee Card is in the pocket of every garment.
