

THE WORST OF ALL THE ISMS.

"Don't talk to me about your political 'isms,'" said a sufferer, "I tell you there's no ism on earth as bad as Rheumatism." The venerable sufferer was right. St. Lawrence's gridiron or Quatimozin's pallet of fire, was not more emphatically a bed of torment than the couch of the martyr to rheumatism. It is generally considered by the faculty one of the most obstinate as well as one of the most painful of maladies, and it certainly does resist all ordinary remedies with extraordinary pertinacity. Skill and science however, in this age of progress, seem to master all opposition; and even this painful disease, entrenched among the muscles, and interknit, as it were, with the sinews and tendons of our frames, is compelled to yield to the curatives they have provided.

We have it on unquestionable authority—the testimony of parents themselves—that rheumatism, however deeply seated, may be cured by the regular and persistent application of Holloway's Ointment. This, we feel assured, will be welcome intelligence to thousands of sufferers, bedridden by the disease, or limping with stiffened joints along the pathway to the tomb. In a climate where the quicksilver sometimes makes a leap of thirty degrees up or the down, complaint is of course a prevalent one; and in our new settlements at the West, along the the alluvial borders of our great rivers, in the hemlock swamps of the South, and in all low and damp locations, few persons reach the age of forty years without a rheumatic visitation. It is clear, therefore, that a preparation which will afford immediate relief, and effect eventually a thorough cure of the complaint, must be of especial value to the people of all countries. We cannot reasonably doubt, in view of the well attested statements which have been laid before us, sustained as they are by circumstances within our own knowledge, that the Ointment referred to will effect that object; and among all the benefits which the discoveries of that celebrated physician and philanthropist have conferred upon mankind, this is certainly not the least important. Many an industrious tiller of the soil, whose services are needed in the field, is at this moment languishing on a bed of sickness; the hands that should guide the plough or grasp the spade rendered powerless by rheumatism. Many a toiler in every branch of productive labor is similarly situated; and we can imagine with what joy these sufferers would hail the means of immediate cure. To all such we feel justified in recommending this balsamic remedy, application of which, with the aid of a few doses of Holloway's Pills to regulate the internal organs, would, we feel assured, restore them to health and usefulness.—Baltimore Argus.

THE ONE THING NECESSARY!

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

The Blood.

These famous Pills are so composed that they operate wholesomely on the Stomach, the Liver, the Bowels and other organs; by correcting any derangements in their functions; whereby a steady supply of pure materials for the renewal of the Blood is furnished, and a constant abstraction of effete products is effected. This perfect circulation thus becomes the very fountain of health and life, and overcomes all form of disease wherever its situation.

General Disorders of the Liver and Stomach.

All whoever indulge at table, either in eating or drinking, should take about ten of these famous Pills at bed time, from which will result a clear head and good stomach the following morning. Thousands of Ladies are always complaining of sick headaches, want of appetite, want of energy, and want of strength; to correct all these evils, three or four of these Pills should be taken twice a week, when they would give the invalid the health and appetite of a ploughman.

Females of all Ages and Classes.

Obstructions of any kind, either in young persons, or those between forty and fifty—the most critical period of life—may be radically removed by using these Pills according to the printed directions which accompany each box. Young persons with sickly and sallow complexions may have the bloom of health restored by this wonderful corrective, which purifies the blood and expels all gross and impure humours from the system. Beware then of the critical age from forty to fifty, as it sends many thousands to a premature grave,—these Pills should be taken at that period of life two or three times a week.

Want of Strength and Energy.

Persons of sedentary habits, or those troubled in mind, working in Factories, or Coal Pits, who cannot obtain that amount of fresh air and exercise which nature requires, suffer from weakness and debility, lowness of spirits and want of appetite. All such should take a dose or two of these Pills every three or four days, as they act gently and effectually on the system, and impart vigour and energy of the body, which is always followed by a good appetite, sound and refreshing sleep, and a high flow of spirits.

For the Cure of Dropsy.

The efficacy of Holloway's Pills in Dropsy is extraordinary. They act with such peculiar effect upon the system, that the fluids causing this direful complaint, are imperceptibly carried off and prevented from any further accumulation. The sufferer regains a buoyancy of spirits, and rejoices in a completely renovated constitution. It is indispensably necessary that the Ointment should be most effectually rubbed into the complaining parts during the whole course of treatment.

Children and their Ailments.

In no country in the world are more children carried to an early grave than in Great Britain. Coughs, Measles, Scarletina, Fevers, and other diseases attack the little sufferers, and death but too often follows at rapid pace; yet if, at the first stage of these complaints, parents were to have recourse to Holloway's Pills, all danger would be avoided; for the stomach and bowels would be gently but effectually cleansed by this mild aperient, the depraved humors corrected and the secretions duly regulated. A perfect cure would soon be effected, and the little patient be restored to sound health.
