OTTAWA (CFP)—Proposed sale of CKW Montreal, Canada's oldest radio station, and of the privately owned Victoria television station ran into opposition Tuesday at a public hearing of the Board of Broadcast Governors.

On a surprise move, a new group including Montreal French-language stations CKAC and CJMS and Morgan Trust Company asked the board to postpone its hearing on the proposed sale of CKCF to Jack Tielman for $1,075,000 until after the spring intended to make its own bid for the radio station.

In a somewhat similar case, privately owned television station CHAN-TV Vancouver asked the board to deny an application to purchase of CHEK-TV Victoria by the station's parent, Westminister, B.C. CHAN-TV suggested that it should be allowed to purchase the Victoria station.

Ownership changes in Canadian radio and television stations are subject to approval by the board and the transport department. The BBG will announce its recommendation later on the Montreal and Victoria cases.

COMMITTEE FIRM
W. V. George, general manager of Canadian Marconi Company Limited, owners of CFPC, said the company has a firm commitment to sell the radio station to Mr. Tielman.

Mr. Tielman is president of Radio Future Limited, which is seeking to purchase both CFPC's AM and FM operations. He controls the Verdun bilingual radio station CKVL.

Mr. George told the board that he would "put up for grabs." Nor is the Marconi-owned television station CFPC-TV for sale.

Marconi was not desperate to sell the radio station, he said, and should the BBG not approve the sale to Mr. Tielman, the station would not necessarily be offered to another prospective buyer.

He said Mr. Tielman was the only one of perhaps eight to 10 persons who during a period of six to eight months expressed interest in buying the station who actually made a firm bid.

Should the sale be approved CFPC, which came on the air in 1910, would have to alter its call letters. The new group tentatively plans to call the station, operating on CFPC's present frequency, CFPR.

A. B. R. Lawrence, counsel for Mr. Tielman, said CKVL, Verdun would become solely a French-language station under the proposed ownership change. There would be no significant change in the management of CFPC.

Edgar Bird was a visitor in Charlottetown Wednesday. He had a patient in the Prince Edward Island Hospital. Reany Worlidge attended the hockey game in Moncton, Wednesday night.
