

Dowling Slides To Third; Peter Hope Wins Tourney

SYDNEY (CP) — Amateur Peter Hope of Dartmouth's Brighton Club finished strong here Sunday to win the Nova Scotia Open golf championship. Hope shot a 13-over-par 307 to lead the field of 41 golfers.

Cecil (Bobby) Dowling, Charlottetown professional, faltered in the final round and finished third after a second-place playoff with pro John (Jook) Munroe of Toronto and Reserve, N.S.

Munroe and Dowling were tied at 307 after the 72-hole tourney, but the Cape Breton-born pro won the playoff on the second hole after both parred the first. Munroe took the $250 top prize for professionals.

Corner Brook, Nfld., took the fourth-place amateur prize with a 318.

Following Dowling and Munroe in the pro field were Halifax Ashburn's Alan Ogilvie and host pro George Gilmurray, both with 315's.

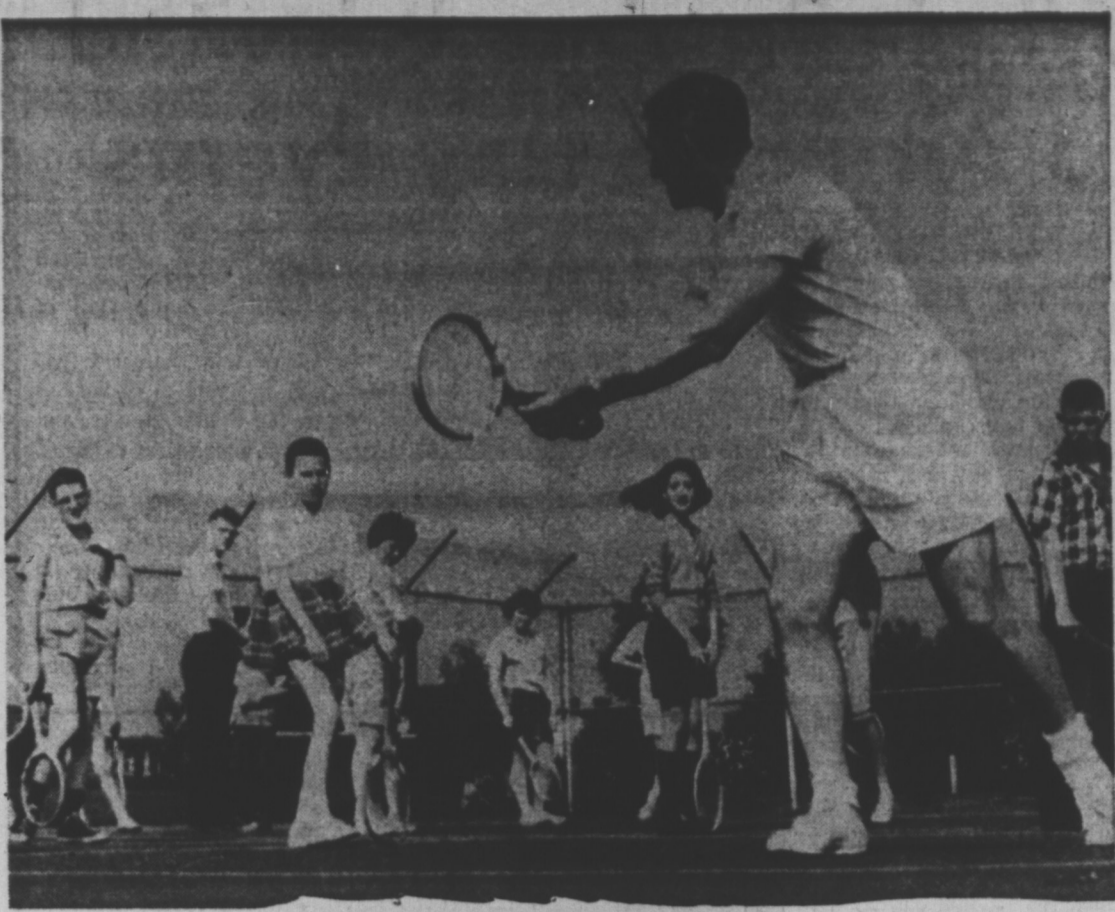

In winning the Open, Hope is practically assured of a spot on the Nova Scotia Willingdon Cup team which will be decided at the Nova Scotia amateur championships at Halifax Ashburn, starting July 13.

Corner Brook, Nfld. pro Pete Shymko finished with a 329. Dave Stevenson of Corner Brook had a 353 and H. Wick 370.

Four or five times in the late rounds Munroe lost his putting touch on short ones and Hope came in with a one-stroke edge on Munroe and Dowling.

Tied at 308, Munroe and Dowling were followed by the tournament's biggest crowd in the play-off. On the par five 469-yard hole, both had five. On short but tricky 205-yard No. 2 both hit the same trap on the left with their first shots.

Dowling blasted out to about 30 feet from the cup. His long put ringered the cup and stayed out. Munroe, who dug out the ball to land it about four feet from the pin, sank his shot to end the meet on the fourth hole.

BYC Juniors, Rollaway Grab Softball Victories

A brilliant one-hit pitching chore by John Hughes of the BYC Juniors and a valiant but unsuccessful bid by the lowly Dodgers to grab their first win of the season highlighted action in the City Softball League at Victoria Park yesterday afternoon.

Hughes, showing top form, limited the BIS Shamrocks to one first inning single in hurling the Juniors to a 2-0 victory that pushed them once again into a tie for second place with Barry's Lions.

The Dodgers, snowed under in the early innings, made a game comeback to nearly overcome a 7-0 lead held by the Rollaway Aces, but finally went down to their 12th consecutive defeat 11-8.

Behind the four hit pitching of Fred Handranan, Peakes walloped St. Peter's 11-2 in a Kings County Baseball League game yesterday.

Gillen, Smith, G. Devine and M. Devine did most of the hitting and run scoring for the winners, collecting a total of seven hits off Floyd Jay and Rely Jenkins. Jenkins relieved Jay in the seventh.

Each team received five free passes to first off the respective batteries. J. MacAulay and David MacLaren scored both runs for St. Peter's.

Over at Morell the Georgetown squad slammed the home team 15-2. Louis MacGuire and Don MacDonald did the hurling for the losers.

Irish hurler big Ed Murphy hurled well enough to win most ball games as he set down the Juniors on only five hits. Dunn's homer was the only extra base hit off him. Seven free tickets to first base kept him in trouble, but he managed to get out of it each time.

St. Peters Is Dumped

St. Peter's was dumped by the Kings County Baseball League yesterday.

Each team received five free passes to first off the respective batteries. J. MacAulay and David MacLaren scored both runs for St. Peter's.

SPORTS FRONT

By PIUS CALLAGHAN

INGEMAR JOHANSSON, the bruising Swede, has lifted the heavyweight crown from the head of Floyd Patterson and the boxing world is still stunned at what they saw and heard last Friday night.

There were few who gave Johansson any kind of a chance to take the title out of the United States. Those who were considered experts were making no secret about their choice for the big battle. They just couldn't see Ingemar in the same ring with the reigning champion. The boys 'in the know' really talked out loud and their faces were crimson when Ruby Goldstein raised Johansson's hand in victory.

INGEMAR was one of the very few who had what he said he had. The Swede boasted about that right hand but not too many took him seriously. These kind of boasts had been made many times before and those making them had usually ended up flat on their backs. But not so with Ingemar. He knew he had a dangerous weapon, he knew it could bring him the world heavyweight championship if he connected and he was pretty sure that he could.

Johansson showed his critics that he could not only hit his opponent with that right hand but that he could follow up and quickly finish his job once he got in his Sunday punch. Once Patterson got hit with the punch 'I couldn't see it coming' he was an easy target for the kill. Johansson hit at will after that and Goldstein had no choice but to call a halt to the show.

THE STUNNING UPSET certainly has done the heavyweight division a great deal of good. Patterson is a young man and undoubtedly a smart fighter. He must have learned a great deal Friday night. There is a chance that he learned enough to not let it happen again. He will get a return bout and perhaps he can do what Joe Louis did to Max Schmeling in their second engagement.

One thing is sure and that is they won't have to entice folks in for the return battle. The promoters should have a field day the next time these two meet.

That next time the Swede will certainly command more respect from the sports writers.

IN OCTOBER 1957 and 1958 Milwaukee Braves and New York Yankees battled each other with the world championship and cold, hard cash riding on the line.

Tonight at County Stadium, Braves and the Yankees will meet again but this time it's just for fun.

The occasion is the second midseason charity exhibition game between the two. The first was played in New York last year.

Milwaukee's share of the gate receipts will be turned over to the Milwaukee Braves-Fred Miller Memorial Scholarship Fund. The fund provides scholarships for needy high school students who want to continue their education. The Yankees will use their share to purchase baseball equipment for youngsters in the New York area.

ONE OF THE SPECIAL ATTRACTIONS tonight will be the pre-game home run hitting contest involving some of the finest long ball hitters in baseball today.

Eddie Mathews, Hank Aaron and Joe Adcock will slug it out for the Braves against Mickey Mantle, Bill Skowron and Yogi Berra. Each will hit five fair balls and the one with the most home runs will win. In case of a tie, a hit-off will be held. To the winner goes a savings bond.

If you look at this year's figures, you have to give the Braves the edge in the home run department. However, this fellow Mantle is a going concern these days and he will be a tough customer for the Braves' sluggers to handle tonight.

FOR MANTLE, the contest will amount to a minor title defence. Last year at New York, he and Joe Adcock tied with two apiece but in the hit-off Mickey blasted one into the right field bleachers.

Any of the six sluggers has the power to clear the fences but they can make it more exciting by shooting at some long marks. San Francisco's Orlando Cepeda cracked one in County Stadium on June 4 and they termed it the longest ball ever clouted in the Braves' park. That ball was estimated to have gone over 500 feet.

So there should be fun at Milwaukee tonight. However, you can bet the Braves and Yankees will be wishing it was world series again and they were tearing into each other. They may get the chance again this October but the going so far is a wee bit tough. There are several teams in each league that are out to change the location of this year's world series. These teams figure it's time for a change.

We heartily agree but it will take a real struggle to stop these outfits from repeating.

THIS CHAP Don Drysdale who was hired by the Los Angeles to do pitching jobs is proving to just about everyone that he is more than a pitcher. Drysdale is rapidly becoming a slugger.

His second last time on the mound he pitched the complete game against Cincinnati Redlegs and won the battle 9-2. That night Don belted a home run and triple and drove in three of the Los Angeles runs.

Thursday he was on the pitcher's mound again and this time he tossed a three hitter at Philadelphia Phillies and picked his eighth victory. He has been beaten five times. That night Drysdale sent another pitch soaring for a home run. It was his third home run of the campaign.

It's a great asset to have a pitcher going for you who can wallop the ball. Usually the pitcher's spot in the batting order is a soft touch for the opposition, but this is not so when Drysdale is the Dodgers' hurler.

This Drysdale is much like Newcombe. Both can pitch and both can hit. They are handy fellows to have around.

Trenton Steel Kings Beat Junior Legionnaires Here

Trenton Steel Kings trounced Junior Legionnaires 13-6 in an exhibition baseball game at Memorial Field Sunday afternoon.

The visitors started business in the first inning and scored in every stanza except the final eighth. The game was called then to allow the Nova Scotians to catch a boat back to the mainland.

Each team collected ten base knocks, but Legionnaires' hurler Roger MacLeod hurt his own cause by walking four and hitting three batsmen. Some poor base running by his mates, plus eight big errors, made certain his day's work was recorded in the loss column.

Stan Guthrie, who picked up the win, issued only one pass to first base and he struck out three. MacLeod fanned nine of the visiting mainlanders.

The Steel Kings picked up three runs in each of the fifth and sixth innings. They pushed two over in the first and seventh and had singletons in the second, third and fourth.

Legionnaires grabbed their first marker in the opening inning, added a pair in the sixth and three more in the eighth.

Second baseman Sam Scott and catcher 'Bun' MacDonald were the leading hitters for the winners. Each had two singles in five trips to the plate.

Centerfielder Wayne MacDonald, first baseman Harry Callaghan and second sacker Gordon Whitlock led the losers' attack. Wayne had three singles in four trips. Harry two in five appearances and Gordie a double and single for a 400 percentage.

King's Co. Outfits Beat City Juniors

King's County League baseball teams topped Charlottetown Junior teams in exhibition games Saturday.

At Mount Stewart, Hamilton Douglas' boys downed Charlottetown Legionnaires 8-5, while at Memorial Field in Charlottetown, St. Peter's Bay Rovers hung a 5-2 defeat on Junior Abbies.

Ernie Crane hurled the Mount Stewart squad to their triumph, Crane yielded six hits and struck out ten. His opponent Letty Dunn gave up eight hits and fanned 16 batters.

Ross Pigott and C. Jay led the winners' attack. Pigott had three hits in four trips and Jay went 2 for 4.

Harry Callaghan, Roger MacLeod and Mike O'Brien garnered all the losers' hits. Harry hit at a 750 clip, getting three for four; Roger was 500 with a 2 for 4 performance and Mike picked up a single. At Memorial Field, Floyd Jay pitched a one-hitter against the Abbies. A bunt single by Smith in the seventh spoiled the no-hitter. His wildness cost him the two runs that Abbies managed to tally.

St. Pats Beat Cardigan 13-9

The Fort Augustus St. Pats outlasted Cardigan 13-9 in a regular game of the South Kings-Queens Baseball League at Fort Augustus Sunday.

Emmett Hughes hurled well for the St. Pats for five innings allowing but one run, but Cardigan caught up to him in the sixth and he gave way to Cecil Shea. C. MacLellan and D. MacLellan, a brother team, did the pitching for Cardigan.

The previous Sunday at Cardigan the St. Pats were dropped 19-5.

Next Sunday the St. Pats play at Iona while Vernon River is host to Cardigan.

When he reached the 170-year 13th, Parsons used his No. 6 iron again. But unlike the previous hole in one, when the ball landed five feet from the pin, took a bounce and rolled in, this next one went into the cup on a fly.

Ginger E. Lowers Record In Both Miles Of A Pace

Ginger E.'s two terrific miles and stunning upsets by Lily's Pointer and Jean Clegg were highlights of Saturday night's harness racing program at Charlottetown Driving Park.

Ginger copped both dashes of the A pace in 2:10 and 2:09.3, both trips bettering his former mark.

Lily's Pointer romped home a winner in the second dash of the 23 pace after finishing a poor seventh in the opening trip. Jean Clegg outfooted her opposition in the final mile of the AA pace. The Stead mare's win was not expected by the majority of the bettors.

Other winners were Captain Clegg, Blake Hanover, War Cry Ranger and Victory March.

A large crowd witnessed the thrilling eight-dash card under ideal weather conditions. All races were hard fought affairs and homelane thrills came thick and fast.

Here are samples of the pays at the mutuels: To win — Lily's Pointer $34.80; Jean Clegg $20.40; Captain Clegg $17.60.

Daily doubles — Blake Hanover and Ginger E., $22.60; Lily's Pointer and Victory March, $28.60.

Quinnella — War Cry Ranger and Peter Federal, $7.50.
