

THE DAILY EXAMINER.

DECEMBER 29, 1886.

Editorial Notes.

Our readers will be pleased to learn that Messrs. Sullivan and Ferguson have secured about half a million of dollars to be placed to the credit of this Province.

The result of the elections in Ontario is as THE EXAMINER predicted it would be—and just what was to be expected.

We understand that the organization of Liberal-Conservative Associations in the different polling divisions is progressing favourably.

It will, says the Montreal Gazette, be cause of general regret throughout Canada that for some time past the health of Lord Dufferin has been far from good.

The Guild of the Iron Cross is the name of a society under the aegis of the Episcopal Church that has been started in Philadelphia and New York to combat the principles of the Knights of Labor and other kindred societies of more or less harmful tendencies.

What Hon. Mr. Sullivan Says.

The Montreal Gazette publishes an interview with Hon. W. W. Sullivan, in which that gentleman declares that the mission was quite successful, everything pointing to the construction of the Subway between the Island and the Mainland.

Two young men named Anthony, of King's, N. S., were out hunting in the woods last week. They separated, and one shortly afterwards thought he saw game in the brush ahead.

A MEETING of the ladies interested in the Y. M. C. A., will be held to-morrow afternoon at 4 o'clock, to take into consideration the question of a Banquet in aid of the funds of the Association.

Chamberlain Speaks Out.

HE PRAISES LORD CHURCHILL AND POINTS OUT HOW THE LIBERALS MAY BE REUNITED.

Mr. Chamberlain made a speech at a private meeting of the Birmingham Liberal Council on the evening of the 23rd inst. He said the political situation was an extraordinary and critical one.

The Irish Question.

MOVEMENTS OF THE POLITICIANS.

Mr. Parnell, preceded by some of his most trusted colleagues, goes to Ireland for the purpose of devising some way to conciliate the English and Scotch Liberals.

The Pope on the Position of the Church.

A telegram from Rome states that when receiving Christmas congratulations from the College of Cardinals the Pope spoke at some length of the position of the Church in Italy.

Terrible Experience in a Gale.

It now transpires that the condition of the steamer passengers on board the steamer Zealand, which left Philadelphia on Dec. 1, and put in at Queenstown the other day, after encountering a gale, was deplorable in the extreme.

VERY young girls, who have made their debut in society, are called "debibles." Antiquated old maids are "tabbies."

No Guillotine in Miquelon.

A PECULIAR STORY—A MURDERER SENTENCED TO BE GUILLOTINED, BUT THERE IS NO GUILLOTINE.

The authorities of the French colony of Isles St. Pierre and Miquelon have upon their hands a convicted assassin who is something of an elephant.

Boston Markets.

DECEMBER 24.

Eggs.—There has been more demand the past few days, with sales of Eastern extras at 28 to 29c per dozen.

POTATOES.—There has been a fair trade in Potatoes but prices close easier.

FISH TRADE.—There is very little change to note in the Fish market.

AN epilogue of every thing that is attractive and desirable in juvenile literature—Boston Courier.

The Kind of a Bible They Want.

Woman is still revolting, says the St. James Gazette. This time she is disposed to look to the origin of things, and has in it design to confound the tyrannical sex with Biblical texts.

Terrible Experience in a Gale.

It now transpires that the condition of the steamer passengers on board the steamer Zealand, which left Philadelphia on Dec. 1, and put in at Queenstown the other day, after encountering a gale, was deplorable in the extreme.
