Plan Layette, Clothing Box For Donation To USC

Plans to buy a layette and pack a box of good used clothing for the Unitarian Service Committee were made at the October meeting of the New London Women's Institute held at the home of Mrs. Harold Mayhew.

The president, Mrs. Daniel Morrison, presided and the meeting opened by singing "When the World's all done this Fall" followed by the collect in unison.

A total of 16 members responded to roll call and three visitors were welcomed. Correspondence included two from Mrs. Harlow.

It was reported that a quilt the WI members had quilted had been sent to the hospital and had been purchased for the windows in the Lucy Maude Montgomery house.

A discussion took place on the 30th anniversary of the Institute. The following were nominated to make out a program for 1955: Mrs. William MacEwen, Mrs. Elva MacCallister, Mrs. Don MacEwen. The new nominating committee for 1955 is Mrs. E. Cole, Mrs. Eric MacEwen and Mrs. Oscar MacKay.

Mrs. Douglas Cole read a paper on "Thanksgiving" and a meeting of the group was held at the home of Mrs. Don MacEwen. The meeting closed with the Queen, and delicious refreshments were served by the committee in charge.

ELLEN'S DIARY
Field-Garden Vegetables Are Harvested And Stored

"It takes the sunshine to make the countryside beautiful," a visitor commented with a pleased smile this afternoon, looking off from the yard, which is but a step in the hillside, into the valley below. Tucked in there amid the fiery greens which attend the stream and River's windings are now the crimson of the red maple, and the light glow of the poplars. If one chooses to stop above the city's hill as we like to do, when homing from a stroll or other outing, we find a neat pattern on this slope. In an extent of the 30 ft woods of spruces and firs, the leafed ones here and there add some loveliness to the scene. Charming to us these scenes are because before long, it comes to mind, this will be changed. The bright shades will be lost. The accent will be on the dark green of the conifers, pictured in contrast against the white of the snow.

It takes a touch of the sunlight on these days to bring cheer to the farmers, who now work against time, in an effort to complete all their harvestings.

At Rob's, the elder son of this house, today lumps were being gathered in. At this farm, last

MR. AND MRS. BOYCE STEVENSON Brown-Stevenson Nuptials Solemnized At First Baptist

The marriage of Gloria Jean Brown, RN, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brown, Sherwood, to Boyce Elmer Stevenson, elder son of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Stevenson, Winslow, took place in September in First Baptist Church, Charlottetown.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Malcolm F. Harlow.

The church was decorated with baskets of mixed flowers and the guest seats marked off with white satin bows.

Mrs. V. L. Digwell, church organist, accompanied the guest soloist, Beryl Vessey, York, as she sang "Wedding Prayer" prior to the ceremony and "I'll Walk Beside You" during the signing of the register.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of white organza, with fitted bodice, but a u neckline, and a spread collar. The princess panel front was highlighted with garlands of Swiss lace appliques. The back featured a full bustle sweeping into a chapel train. Her three-tiered, elbow-length veil was held in place by an organza rosette headpiece. She carried a cascade of deep pink Delight roses with feathery carnations and ivy. Her only jewelry, a cultured pearl earrings, were a gift of the groom.

Attending the bride as matron of honor, was Mrs. Leonard Munroe, RN, classmate of the bride. The bridesmaids were Norma Brown, sister of the bride, and Sylvia Stevenson, a sister of the groom. They were gowned in identical strict length dresses of turquoise peau-de-sea with scooped necklines, three-quarter sleeves and bell-shaped skirts, with matching carried nosegays of white and yellow mums.

The best man was Barrie Stevenson, brother of the groom. George Young and Barry Brown, brother of the bride, were ushers.

Mrs. Brown chose for her daughter's wedding a dress of light beige broche, with a deep pink hat and black accessories. Her carriage was of deep pink organza.

The bridegroom's mother

The chapel of St. James the Apostles Church, Montreal, was the setting recently for the marriage of Barbara Lois Stewart to Mr. Walter Wolf.

The bride is the daughter of the Honourable J. David and Mrs. Stewart and Mrs. Mattias Wolf, Wuppertal, West Germany.

The Rev. E. C. Royle presided at the ceremony and the wedding music was played by the church organist, Ted McLarnin. Arrangements of white and yellow chrysanthemums decorated the chapel.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of white peau de se with a portrait neckline, fitted bodice and yellow chrysanthemum and elbow length sleeves. Her slim skirt fell into a chapel train which was re-embroidered with matching lace. Her bouffant veil of French blue illusion tulle was topped with a matching cap of tufted peau de se and she carried a cascade bouquet of white and yellow chrysanthemums and a white gladiolus boutonniere.

The bride was attended by her sister, Heather Stewart, gowned in a floor length model of emerald green velvet fascinator with a high scooped neckline, short sleeves and a cummerbund and back panels in matching peau de se. She wore a velvet bow as her headpiece and carried a semi-cascade bouquet of yellow shasta daisies.

The groom's attendants were Rodney Elkin as best man and Robert Wolf as ring bearer. Mrs. Stewart, the bride's mother, wore a moss green silk tulle dress with a matching lace bodice, champagne hat and accessories and a corsage of gold chrysanthemums.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Ritz-Carlton Hotel. The toast to the bride and the groom responded.

Later, Mr. and Mrs. Wolf left for Acapulco, Mexico. The bride travelled in a beige and brown silk, dark brown accessories and wore a corsage of chrysanthemum orchids.

Upon their return the couple will reside in Dorval, P.Q.

Out of the city guests included Mrs. Wayne G. Giesbauer, London, Susan Stewart, Jamie Stewart, Hazel Kennedy, Lilla and Mrs. P. J. Poye, and Mrs. A. and Mrs. A. C. Beach, St. Catharines, O.P. Ms. G. berries in the summery sun that had come.

"Do you know, Ellen?" James spoke up from his supper. "I've just been thinking things over, and on mulling you may say, 'We grow up potatoes now, but only a bit of hay and a grain. I am thinking we'll have to quit this idleness' he nodded, 'and get back into the farming again'."

And this old house that has known many a day of it, good and not so good, but has been in all in all mostly happy, cuddles now a pair of the "ain folk" under its wings, and settles down to rest.

HENDERSON & CUDMORE

If you're cold in this underwear, better move South

Nothing (except, maybe, the tropics) will keep you warmer than Stanfield's Thermal underwear. This is because the thousands of tiny knit pockets actually capture body warmth, and insulate you against below-zero weather.

This winter-proof underwear is made in a choice of weights in all-cotton, cotton and wool, and cotton and terylene. They will keep their shape washing after washing. You can get short-sleeve shirts from about $1.95, or long sleeves from $2.95. Men's elastic-waist longs from $2.50 to $4.95. Boys' shirts will cost you about $1.50, and longs with full double seat about $1.95 to $2.50. You'll be comfortable in Stanfield's. And they're a lot cheaper than moving south.
