

Dodd's Kidney Pills

are the only medicine that will cure Diabetes. Like Bright's Disease this disease was incurable until Dodd's Kidney Pills cured it. Doctors themselves confess that without Dodd's Kidney Pills they are powerless against Diabetes. Dodd's Kidney Pills are the first medicine that ever cured Diabetes. Imitations—box, name and pill, are advertised to do so, but the medicine that does cure is Dodd's Kidney Pills. Dodd's Kidney Pills are fifty cents a box at all druggists.

Diabetes

Handicap your Cough!

Don't wait a few days to see if it will "wear off"; it is much more likely to become dangerous and it will undoubtedly be much more difficult to cure. The longer you permit it to prey upon the delicate membranes of your throat, bronchial tubes and chest, the more you render yourself susceptible to other attacks and to chronic pneumonia or consumption.

Adamson's Botanic Cough Balsam is an infallible remedy: for more than 30 years it has been curing the worst cases and it will surely cure you. 25 CENTS AT ALL DRUGGISTS.

EDUCATIONAL COLUMN.

(EDITED BY INSPECTOR McCORMAC)

MENTAL ARITHMETIC.

Questions in oral work to be asked primary pupils:—

1. How many eyes have 6 boys? 2. How many more ears have 5 boys than 2 girls? 3. Katie bought a pencil for 2 cents, a pen for 1 cent and an orange for 3 cents; how much did all cost? 4. How many toes have 2 babies? 5. 10 cents will buy how many apples at 2 cents apiece? 6. How many 2s in 12? 7. If a sponge cost 2 cents, how many sponges will 10 cents buy? 8. How many pairs of mittens does it take for 5 boys? 9. Add ten, twelve and twenty-two. 10. There are 223 sheep in one field and 112 in another; how many sheep in both fields? How many more sheep in the one than in the other field? 11. Multiply 52 by 2. 12. Jennie gave 18 cents for a pair of mittens, what did one mitten cost? 13. If an orange cost 2 cents and a pencil 1 cent, what will 2 oranges and 2 pencils cost? 14. How many are four 3's? 15. Jennie had 10 cents and gave one-half of them to Mary, how many did Mary receive? 16. How many hands have three boys and four girls together? 17. How many pies must we have for dinner that each one of eight persons may get one-quarter of a pie? 18. Mary is six years old; her brother is twice as old; how old is her brother? 19. How many fingers on three hands? 20. Subtract 34 from 49. 21. How many cents will three two-cent stamps and one three-cent stamp cost? 22. Carrie has 100 cents and Howard has one dollar, which has more money Carrie or Howard? 23. How many days in five weeks? 24. There are five school days in a week, how many days was a boy in school that attended 3 weeks? 25. Gertie was in school 2 weeks and 3 days, how many days was she in school? 26. The baby is three days less than 3 weeks old, how old is the baby? 27. Our hens lay 3 eggs every day, in how many days will they lay a dozen eggs? 28. If a dozen eggs cost 12 cents, what will 2 less than a dozen cost? 29. Robbie buys 2 stamps to mail three letters, how many cents does it take? 30. Fifteen days and how many more days make 3 weeks? Teachers would do well by spending ten or fifteen minutes daily in oral work with those pupils who are working the fair simple rules. The above questions are simply given here as suggestive of what the teacher can do in this particular. A teacher will have no trouble in making up questions of a practical nature.

NUGGETS.

1. Idleness is the mother of want.
2. A teacher can generally do what he firmly believes he can do.
3. Keep the mind ever inquisitive, fresh, alert, stimulating.
4. These are the days for the study of Cape Colony, Natal, Transvaal and the Orange Free State.
5. A scholar can never be manufactured after any pattern, he must grow and be developed largely from within.
6. The example of the teacher, in everything, should be pure, flowing out from the purity of his soul.
7. The secret of success in teaching is to have every word, act and thought tell. Success and failure hinge on this distinction between well directed and mis directed effort.
8. Knowledge, without power to regulate it, may make a man a powerful villain.
9. Let the teacher impress upon the child his duty to God, to himself and to his fellow-beings.
10. It is marvellous what little children can be led to by an enthusiastic and skilled teacher.
11. Teacher, exact of yourself the promptness, the punctuality, and the full regard for the fulfilment of any promise that you expect from your pupils.
12. The supreme question in education is not what the child can do, but what he ought to do.
13. "Over and over again," must be the motto of the primary teacher.
14. Are you a better teacher than you were one year back or one term back?
15. "The subscriber really makes the paper," said Horace Greeley. To do their part in making this column of THE EXAMINER the teachers are invited to write us, generally and specifically, what they want, what helps they want, what successes they have had, and how these were attained. Take an interest.

The teacher called the grammar class, One bright November day, And said: "My children, now you know The hens they sit and lay, So tell me what the people do— Now think right hard and try," And then a sorrel-headed boy Yelled out: "They sit and lie!" —Atlantia Journal.

To swell, from the sea to the sea,
The song of the land that is free.
Hail to the blending of races!
God bless it!
Hail to the nation new-born!
Let Saxon and Celt, with a triumph heart felt,
The hopes of a nation adorn,—
The strength of a nation new-born.
Hail to our lakes, streams and woodlands!
Let's love them!
Hail to the land east and west!
Let no faction-stealth detract from the wealth
Of our faith in the land that is blest,
Our faith in the land of the West.
For God and their country, our fathers fought bravely;
For God and our country shall we Defend what is right, repressing the might,

And the pride that oppresses the free,
That threatens the land of the free.

Wave our banners while greeting
Our kindred!
Hail to our nation anew!
With a joyous na, ha, and hip, hip hurrah
Aloft with the 'red, white and blue,'
The flag of the brave and the true!

Then hail to the land of our fathers!
God bless it!
Hail to the land of the free!
As it flung we salute, let no voices be mute,
To swell, from the sea to the sea,
The song of the land that is free.

RESOLUTIONS.

Good resolutions are always in order but they are particularly appreciated at the beginning of the year. When a teacher sees no objection for making definite plans for improvement in his time that he ceased to teach.

There is another kind of resolution, the resolution that is passed by a society or other organization, beginning, whereas, and concluding. Therefore be it resolved, The purpose of such resolutions is generally to afford an opportunity for somebody to make himself or herself the subject of his resolution either hopelessly ineffectual or supremely ridiculous. In Chicago the other day, when superintendent Andrews, of the public schools, had expressed himself as believing the British are in the right regarding the South African war, the Chicago Board of Aldermen broke out in a resolution to the effect that the superintendent of schools should be forced to resign his position forthwith.

A few weeks ago the Board of Aldermen of the city of Denver, Colorado, after clearing its throat with a sufficient number of whereases, proceeded to deliver itself of a resolution of sympathy for the people of the Transvaal Republic. How particularly soothing it will be to President Kruger and his fighting countrymen to know that they have a majority of the Denver Aldermen on their side. The superior possibilities which the resolution affords for the display of certain qualities of childishness and bigotry that might otherwise remain concealed would seem almost alarming enough to justify its suppression by legislative enactment. To express it in the unique French of Mr. Martin Daouly, "Abase the resolution!"

The following patriotic song was recently composed by Dr. J. M. Harper, formerly principal of our normal school. It has been set to music by Mr. F. C. Robinsons Teachers who wish to have their pupils learn a stirring, patriotic song should secure a copy of the music.

HAIL TO THE LAND.

Hail to the land of our fathers!
God bless it!
Hail to the land of the free!
As its flag we salute, let no voices be mute.

THE USE OF CAPITALS.

Every entire sentence should begin with a capital.
Proper names and adjectives derived from them should begin with a capital.
All appellations of the Deity should begin with a capital.
Official and honorary titles should begin with a capital.
Every line of poetry should begin with a capital.
Titles of books and the heads of their chapters and divisions are printed in capitals.
The pronoun I and the exclamation O are always capitals.
Every quotation should begin with a capital letter.
Names of religious denominations begin with capitals.

In the old days of the Christian martyrs it was not unusual for the savage Pagans to cast innocent women into a den of lions, to suffer horrible agony and fear before death finally came to their relief. In this Christian age and this land of civilization tens of thousands of women daily suffer the slow tortures of approaching death. They do this because of a false delicacy frequently inculcated by their mothers.

There is a marvelous medicine for women that cures all weakness and disease of the distinctly feminine organism. It acts directly on the delicate and important organs concerned in maternity and makes them strong and healthy. It is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It allays inflammation, heals ulceration and soothes pain. It gives rest and tone to the tortured nerves. Under its magic influence the headaches and pains in the back and sides, the dragging and burning sensations, the nervousness, weakness, lassitude and despondency that result from so-called female weakness are banished. It fits for wifehood and motherhood. Taken during the period of solicitude, it banishes the usual discomforts and makes baby's entry to the world easy and almost painless. It insures the new-comer's health and an ample supply of nourishment. Thousands of women have testified to its marvellous merits. All good druggists sell it.

Mrs. Ursula Dusham, of Sistersville, Tyler Co., W. Va., writes: "My baby is now nearly a year old. After she was born I had local weakness. I could not stand up. I took three bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and it has cured me. I can now do all my work."

In preparing accounts each item should begin with a capital.
Any word of special importance may begin with a capital.

SOME RULES FOR SPELLING.

Words ending in e drop that letter before the termination able, as in move, movable; unless ending in ce or ge, when it is retained, as in change, changeable, etc.

Words of one syllable, ending in a consonant, with a single vowel before it, double the consonant in derivatives; as ship, shipping, etc. But if ending in a consonant with a double vowel before it, they do not double the consonant in derivatives; as troop, trooper, etc.

Words of more than one syllable, ending in a consonant preceded by a single vowel, and accented on the last syllable, double that consonant in derivatives; as commit, committed, but except chagrine, chagrined.

All words of one syllable ending in l, with a single vowel before it, have ll at the close; as will, sell.

All words of one syllable ending in l, with a double vowel before it, have only one l at the close; as sail, mail.

The words forestall, distill, instill and fallall, retain the ll of their primitives. Derivatives of dull, skill, will and full also retain the ll when the accent falls on these words; as dullness, skillful, willful, fallacious.

Words ending in y, preceded by a vowel, form their plurals by adding s, as money, moneys; but if y, is preceded by a consonant it is changed to ies in the plural, as beauty, beauties.

Compound words whose primitives end in y, change the y into i, as beauty, beautiful.

Participles ending in ing, from verbs ending in e, lose the final e; as delecting, faithful; unless the accent falls on the last syllable; as befall, etc.

Words ending in l, double the letter in the termination, ly.

A NEW MAN
What Vernon Bromley Says About Dodd's Kidney Pills [for Rheumatism].
TORONTO, Jan. 23.—Vernon Bromley, clerk of the Gilbert House here, and a well known man about town, has entirely recovered from his attack of Sciatica. The rheumatic taint has been eradicated from his system permanently by the use of Dodd's Kidney Pills.
"I had been a martyr to Rheumatism and Sciatica for years," says Mr Bromley. "I have always been against any patent medicine until I read unrefuted statements of cures of this dreadful disease. I hesitated, but everything else having failed, I got half a dozen of Dodd's Kidney Pills. I have now used twelve boxes altogether, and am cured. Dodd's Kidney Pills made a new man of me."
