SAMPLES OF EDITORIAL NOTICES GIVEN IN DAKOTA FOR SMALL FAVORS THANKFULLY RECEIVED.

As some little misunderstanding seems to exist concerning the size of puff this paper will give in return for favors real or supposed, we take this opportunity to publish the following rates, which take effect from this date:

For one watermelon handed in at the office we will say: "Mr. Gardentruck, our esteemed fellow-townsmen, presented us last Wednesday afternoon with a large luscious watermelon of the Plymouth Rock variety on which the printers feasted. May he live long and prosper." In case the melon proves to be green this will be the form: "Farmer Gardentruck laid a good sized melon on our table one day this week. Thanks."

A small lot of new potatoes will call out the following: "Uncle Abner Stubbleplow remembers ye editor just as we go to press with a most luscious-looking mess of new potatoes. We and our family expect to revel in the fruit during the coming week. He informs us that the bugs are doing great damage to the vines of many of his neighbors. Uncle, you struck the printer in the right spot; may your shadow never grow less!"

When a box of cigars is left, this is the formula: "The sanctum of the Bell was invaded last Tuesday by the genial presence of Tom Liverpills, the handsome young proprietor of the Red Front Pioneer Drug Store, who placed on tap a full box of choice Habanas. Here's to you Tom! Our many readers will remember that he has just got in a full new line of paints, oils, axle grease, condition powders, perfumery, putty, and other drugs and toilet articles."

Green corn will produce the following editorial effect: "Ye scribe's family has been enjoying another luxury for the last four days, Mrs. Deacon Church-debt having presented our wife with a good dozen of roasting ears. Such favors as this are fully appreciated by yours truly, as well as by his wife and family. May Mrs. C. meet her reward in our earnest wish!"

This for the big egg: "Squire Applejack laid the largest sample of hen fruit on our desk, one day this week, that we have ever seen. He assures us that it measures 18 by 10 feet in circumference. Next!"

A bouquet will be acknowledged like this: "Yesterday afternoon as ye pencil pusher was busy with an unexpected rush of job work, who should come in but Miss Birdie Pistolpractice, the charming daughter of our worthy fellow-citizen Colonel Pistolpractice. She presented us with a beautiful bouquet of wild flowers which she had plucked with her own fair hands. Among the varieties we noticed fireweed, dandelion, wild buckwheat, red-top, tansy and sunflowers. It shall remain many days to beautify our sanctum. Our wife is also pleased with it."

The giver of a spare-rib may expect this: "Our genial and justly popular neighbor, Major Porcine, having frequently noticed the hungry look on the printer's face, took occasion early Monday morning to leave a mammoth spare-rib at our humble abode, taken from one of his famous drove of South-down porkers. We and our family have accordingly been feasting on fresh meat. By the way, we understand that the major will accept the nomination for the legislature if it is tendered him. He is the man for the place."

A turkey will inspire this: "While sitting in our sanctum sanctorum about 11 o'clock Thursday morning reclining our heads in our hands, we were greatly surprised as well as pleased by having Colonel McTough walk in with a mysterious air and a bundle under his arm. We had just finished writing our leader found on the first page, entitled 'True Tariff Reform as Compared with Tariff Jugglery,' and felt considerable fatigue, but it was immediately dispelled when the handsome colonel disclosed a large, fat turkey in the bundle, which he assured us was for our Thanksgiving dinner. To say that we were pleased but faintly expresses the emotions which surged through our breast. We immediately called our wife, who was even more pleased than we. It is such things as this that make life amid the exacting cares of the newspaper office endurable and causes us to keep on the editorial harness without repining. Colonel, may heaven reward you! It may not be out of place to inform our many readers that the Colonel's friends expect the coming Legislature to elect him to the United States Senate. He seems to be the unanimous choice of our people. We predict that he will get in on the first ballot." Estellie (Dak.) Bell.

MANHOOD

How Lost, How Restored. We have recently published a new edition of DR. CULVERWELL'S CELEBRATED ESSAY on the medical and permanent cure (without medicine) of Nervous Debility, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, etc., resulting from excesses. Price, in a sealed envelope, only 6 cts or two postage stamps. The celebrated author, in this admirable Essay, clearly demonstrates, from thirty years' successful practice, that alarming consequences may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicines or the use of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically. This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land. Address: THE CULVERWELL MEDICAL CO. 41 Ann St., New York. Post Office Box 450.
